Riots Probers Find No Plot, Warn Against Separatism

WASHINGTON (AP) — A presidential commission demands compassionate, massive and sustained efforts—perhaps costing more money than the Vietnam war—to end the destruction and bitterness wrought by racial disorder in America's cities.

"Our nation is moving toward two societies, one black, one white—separate and unequal," declared the President's Commission on Civil Disorders. It condemned white racism as a central cause and warned:

"If we are heedless none of us shall escape the consequences."

'GARRISON STATE'

Unless immediate action is taken, the commission said, "large-scale and continuing violence could result, followed by white retaliation, and, ultimately, the separation of the two communities into a garrison state."

It reeled off scores of recommendations, including vastly expanded programs to provide 2 million jobs, 6 million housing units, drastically improved slum schools and overhaul of the welfare system designed to guarantee all Americans "a minimum standard of decent living."

NO COST TALLY

The commission didn't estimate the cost of its proposals, saying only the "will require unprecedented levels of funding and performance." It seemed obvious, though, that the price tag could exceed even the $25 billion annual outlay for the Vietnam war.

New taxes must be imposed if necessary, the panel told President Johnson, but "there can be no higher priority for national action and no higher claim on the nation's conscience."

The White House had no immediate reaction to the report. Comment in Congress was sparse—probably because the document was released two days earlier than planned and most congressmen hadn't received a copy.

But even before its release, one major question was being raised.

"Where," asked Rep. George H. Mahon, D-Tex., "are we going to get the money?" He heads the House Appropriations Committee.

ADOPTION HOPES

So sweeping was the commission's bundle of recommendations that even its members conceded chances of Congress approving all of them were nil.

The 11-member group issued a 12,000-word summary report last night — four months ahead of the deadline set by Johnson—after learning a newspaper had obtained a copy and was planning to publish it. The rest of the report—250,000 words—will be released Saturday night, the original date.

The commission spent seven

U.S. Stops Red Gun Smugglers In Sea Victory

SAIGON (UPI) — U.S. sailors and soldiers destroyed five Communist gun-running ships today and captured a sixth — but were forced to let a seventh enemy vessel flee unharmed when it refused to come out of the safety of international waters. U.S. officials called it the "most important" naval battle of the war.

North Vietnamese troops launched their first major ground attack on the U.S. Marine base at Khe Sanh today but were hurled back from the barbed wire perimeter by South Vietnamese Rangers.

U.S. B52 strategic bombers dropped 1,000 pound bombs on the North Vietnamese attack force of a 500-man battalion. It was one of the rare instances in which the giant bombers have flown close support missions for ground troops. They struck barely 750 yards from the base, at the end of the Khe Sanh airstrip.

South Vietnamese paratroopers also won a victory just outside Saigon where they overran the fortified position of an estimated two companies of Viet Cong (about 300 men) and killed 22 in a fight that once again eased the threat to Tan Son Nhut air base.

Laos Prince Charges Reds With Asia Plot

VIENTIANE, Laos (UPI)—Premier Prince Souvanna Phouma said today the Communists had set brother against brother in this small Indochinese kingdom as part of a plan for conquest of Asia and the world.

He said there were now more than 600,000 war refugees in a nation of 1.2 million persons.

Souvanna, in a special Refugee Day speech to more than 5,000 diplomats, officials and private citizens, appealed for international aid for the refugees. Communist diplomats pointedly stayed away from the meeting.

Light Over Gulf Not Downed B52

CORPUS CHRISTI, Tex. (UPI)—The Coast Guard dismissed today as a probable meteor the flare-like light seen last night in the Gulf of Mexico area where a B52 bomber is believed to have gone down Wednesday night with a crew of eight.

The crew of a fishing boat late yesterday saw a flash of green light which looked like a flare. A plane and boats sent out to investigate found nothing.

The Coast Guard said more than 30 planes —Air Force, Navy and Coast Guard —now are involved in the search for the bomber along with several seagoing vessels.

Span Board Seeks Law For No-Ballot Bonding

Critic Fears Second Deck 'Blank Check'

By PAUL E. PETERZELL

Golden Gate Bridge and Highway District directors voted yesterday to seek vast new powers to finance any future projects—and almost immediately came under fire for their action.

Their step was "another instance of their going over the heads of the people," charged Marin Supervisor Thomas T. Storer in a hearing hours later by San Francisco supervisors on the future of the district. "What could stop them from building a second deck if the Legislature gave them this blank check?" asked Storer.

He also said he was "appalled" that both of Marin's directors on the board, Thomas D. Hardcastle of Novato and George H. Ludy of Inverness, voted for the proposal.

Michael Peevey of San Rafael, chairman of the Marin Transportation Action Committee, which helped shelve the second deck, termed the bridge board "predatory," and charged "they want to keep their little barony going."

What the bridge board voted to do was seek legislation to empower the district to sell revenue bonds against bridge tolls. No vote by the citizens in the six-county district would be required to sell the bonds, and the board has absolute power to raise whatever tolls would be necessary to service the bonds.

USE NOT BARED

The bridge board did not indicate in any way how the new money might be used, agreeing only that if the district's power is to be expanded to all forms of transit, then it may need more money than it already has.

Assemblyman John F. Foran, D-San Francisco, has introduced the legislation (AB 175) to expand the district's power, and the board's request for new financing power came in a special meeting called to discuss the legislation.

DISTRICT'S STAND

Board president John E. Nelson of Mendocino County argued that AB 175, if passed without also providing new financing power, "would be like telling our wives to go window shopping, but not to buy anything."

It was not explained how the board earlier expected to build a second deck for $45 million without the new power, but now needed the power to help set up a $5 million bus system or $30 million ferry system. These are the common estimates of the cost of these projects.

FORAN BILL

The bridge board also voted to endorse only the half of Foran's bill that would expand its powers, but voted to oppose the part that would add three directors, two from Marin and one from San Francisco.

The only dissenter in the latter vote was Hardcastle. Ludy voted with the majority, despite the unanimous support given the whole bill by the Marin County Board of Supervisors. The addition of new directors "would be unfair to the north county members in the district," Ludy said.

The bridge district now has a

Marin's Loss In ABAG Theft Totals $7,402

At least two payments by Marin County, totalling $7,402, were among the half-million dollars that vanished from the accounts of the Association of Bay Area Governments last month.

This disclosure came today from Marin County Auditor-Controller Michael Mitchell, who has been asked by the Alameda County district attorney to testify late next week on the Marin payments.

From talking to Deputy Dist. Atty. Charles Herbert, Mitchell said it is apparent that county funds are among the money missing despite earlier reports that only federal funds are involved.

"Marin County has paid ABAG $17,483 since July 1965," said Mitchell. "But only two of the checks, paid in August 1966, appear to be a part of the theft."

Mitchell said one check was for $6,190 as Marin's share of financing Bay Area planning by ABAG. The other was Marin's dues for that year, amounting to $1,212. Both were made out to the Association of Bay Area Governments, Hotel Claremont, Berkeley. The endorsement on the canceled checks has this notation: "Association Bay Area Governments, for deposit only, National Bank of Berkeley."

Hospitals Budget Cuts Hit By CMA

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — The California Medical Association reported today Gov. Ronald Reagan's budget cuts at state mental hospitals had caused morale and recruitment problems and been detrimental to maintaining the institutions.

But the CMA, in a report made public by Health and Welfare Administrator Spencer Williams, also found some improvements in patient care during the past three years.

Williams acnkowledged there were some deficiencies in the hospitals but said action had been taken to correct them.

The association evaluated quality of medical care for mentally ill and retarded in all 14 state hospitals after Niels Erick Bank-Mikkelsen, director of the Danish National Service for Mentally Retarded, described conditions at Sonoma State Hospital as "shocking" last year.

Reagan, in what apparently was a reaction to the CMA report even before it was made public, announced last week a new program to improve the level of care for patients.

A major feature was adoption of new staffing standards recom-

Weinberger Sees Tax Relief Hope

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Caspar W. Weinberger was sworn in as Gov. Ronald Reagan's new finance director today and told reporters he thought there is some hope the administration could provide property tax relief this year.

Millions of dollars of property tax reductions are proposed in bills before the legislature. But their future depends on solution of California's latest fiscal problem — a $152 million deficit in the school aid fund.

Weinberger said this is the state's biggest immediate financial dilemma. But he thought it could be worked out so that money also would be available for cutting property tax levies.

San Francisco School Strike Cuts Classes

COMBINED AP & UPI

SAN FRANCISCO — Teachers picketed San Francisco schools today creating what strikers called "complete chaos" at some schools.

Meanwhile, attemps to end the massive Florida teacher's strike collapsed today and teachers were still staying away from classrooms in Pittsburgh, Pa., and Wellston, Mo., as well as threatening to strike in Oklahoma City.

The San Francisco school administration ordered all schools on a prearragned half day schedule.

"close the schools before serious damage is done."

"We don't intend to close the schools," Dr. Jenkins replied. But he did declare "a minimum day," today.

This called for dismissing classes on a timetable basis beginning with kindergarten at 11 a.m. and senior high schools at 12:40 p.m. Parents had been advised of this possibility yesterday. The schools will reopen Monday, Jenkins said.

The union, representing 1,400 of the city's 4,000 teachers — mostly in high schools — reported those teachers who reported for work were "trying to maintain order but are totally incapable of doing so."

It cited examples of "half the kids out on the street" at Lincoln High School, "kids hanging out of the windows and running in and out" of Luther Burbank and Aptos Junior high schools.

The union voted 552-295 last night to strike to force Jenkins to negotiate continuously with it on federation demands and to enforce agreements previously reached.

It did so in the face of a court injunction preventing such meetings, granted yesterday to the rival Classroom Teachers Association.

Most of the 2,600 teachers belonging to the CTA went to their jobs as usual. The Association condemned the walkout as a power play by the union in an attempt to "create

Clerks Claim Lockouts At Markets

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Retail clerks charged they were locked out at 47 stores today despite an agreement with big chain food market operators to postpone strikes and lockouts during a resumption of negotiations.

A spokesman for AFO-CIO Retail Clerks Union Local 648 said about 1,000 clerks had been locked out at 36 Safeway, six Mayfair, four Purity and one Albertson stores, in the dispute involving San Francisco and northern San Mateo County.

Meanwhile, clerks remained on strike at two Lucky stores which were first picketed yesterday.

The union said only five of the 20 members of the Food Employers Association had disregarded a "truce" pending the outcome of today's negotiations.

Employer spokesmen could not be reached for comment.

After pickets were posted at the Lucky stores, employers instituted plans to send clerks at five Mayfair markets home as soon as they had completed their shifts.

White House Cautious On Riots Study

WASHINGTON (UPI) —The White House said today President Johnson will give "careful evaluation" to findings of the riots study commission but that it was too early to say what legislation would be proposed.

Press Secretary George Christian told reporters: "The President wants to do everything he can in this field and the report will be very carefully considered by the Administration."

Asked if any specific legislation was in sight to carry out the commission's recommendations, Christian said, "I can't say at this time. Like other exhaustive studies it will be carefully evaluated by those who have responsibility in this field."

He was asked if Johnson felt the situation was as ominous as indicated by the report. Christian confined himself to saying that the President has indicated in public statements recently that he certainly expects problems in the field of race relations.

Fishing Boat Halts Leak, Heads To Port

CAPE MAY, N.J. (UPI)—The 71-foot fishing vessel Bright Star with 11 persons aboard radioed the Coast Guard today that it had controlled the flooding in one of its holds and no longer was in danger of sinking.

The vessel was limping back to this southern New Jersey community, its home port.

Cloture Rejected In Rights Debate

WASHINGTON (UPI) —The Senate refused today to cut off debate and clear the way for voting on a compromise civil rights package after a bipartisan alliance which fashioned it fell apart.

The vote on the motion was 59 to 35, four votes short of the necessary two-thirds majority.

It was the third time during the six-week-old debate that the Senate refused to invoke debate-limiting cloture.

The support of Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen made the vote closer, but it still fell short of the required two-thirds margin.

The compromise rights package called for open housing and for protection of Negroes and civil rights workers against racial violence.

The Senate's action left in doubt the outlook for civil rights legislation this session.

Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield could schedule a fourth cloture vote next week or he could move to put aside the issue.

Last-minute moves to narrow coverage of the bill's open housing provision cut the voting strength of the civil rights advocates.

Some senators complained that they could not vote for cloture so quickly after the changes were made.

Senate liberals had been optimistic on the outcome.

But they were incensed by what they considered a violation of the agreement which led to the compromise measure. Senate liberals considered last minute amendments by Dirksen and his son-in-law, Sen. Howard H. Baker Jr., R-Tenn., a breach of faith with the negotiators who fashioned the compromise.

The agreement, worked out by Dirksen, the liberals, and Atty. Gen. Ramsey Clark, provides for a three-stage program of housing desegregation which would cover an estimated 44.6 million homes by 1970—almost 70 per cent of the nation's housing.

STUDENTS RIOT IN ROME

Rioting Rome University students set a police truck and a car afire today after police tried to force them out of a campus building. More than 3,000 students joined in the riot, which police described as the city's worst in years. Scores of police and students were injured with more than 100 students arrested. Students are protesting to what they call inadequate classrooms, antiquated teaching methods and control by cliques of influential professors. (AP Wirephoto)

Luebke Denies Nazi Prison Camp Building

BONN (UPI) — President Heinrich Luebke of West Germany went on national Television today and denied accusations that he had planned the building of Nazi concentration camps.

Luebke, 72, said he did help plan barracks-type buildings for building and production workers but added: "Which work forces were ordered into these accommodations was the affair of the firms which constructed the building and the works management when the project was completed."

JUST INSPECTOR

Leubke said he himself worked in a compulsory service program as "general building inspector for the Reich capital."

The white-haired president said none of the buildings he helped plan had "the character of concentration or prison camps."

"Those who defame me have known this for a long time," he added.

The appearance was Luebke's first public comment on the charges since they were first raised two years ago by Communist East Germany.

The East Germans produced documents concerned with the camp plans which bore a signature they claimed was Luebke's. His office issued a denial at the time, but recently the accusation was revived by the magazine Der Stern.

REVIVES STORY

Der Stern published a statement by an American handwriting expert who said both the signatures and the documents appeared to be genuine.

In his television appearance Luebke traced his career from 1933, the year Hitler seized power, through the war. He told of two prewar arrests by the Nazis and of being ordered to compulsory labor service in the Berlin building office.

His work, he said, "dealt with barracks for accommodation—they followed the usual norms without any special fittings."

WORLD NEWS IN BRIEF

McNamara Skiing

DENVER (UPI)—Former Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara arrived in Denver late yesterday to begin a month-long skiing vacation in the Colorado Rockies.

7 Children Die

MERRITT, Mich. (UPI)—Seven children died early today in a fire that swept their two-family home near this Missaukee County community northwest of Houghton Lake.

The mothers and two other children escaped.

Police said Mrs. Vicki Hall, 34, and Mrs. Dawn Snyder, 34, were sleeping in an upstairs bedroom with Mrs. Hall's infant daughter, Patricia, four months, when the fire broke out sometime before 2 a.m.

The smoke and flames quickly spread through the house.

Mrs. Hall's infant daughter, Patricia, and Louis Snyder, 13, survived.

Widow Marries

SPACE CENTER, Houston (UPI)—The widow of astronaut Roger Chaffee, killed in the Apollo 1 fire that set America's space program back more than a year, was married last Saturday to a Houston real estate developer, it was learned yesterday.

Married were the former Martha Chaffee and William C. Canfield.

Britain Shuts Door

Legislation to restrict such immigration to 1,500 family heads and their dependents a year passed its final parliamentary hurdle today in a rare all-night session of the House of Lords.

The speakers of the houses of Lords and Commons an hour later told the chambers that Queen Elizabeth II had given the controversial legislation her automatic assent and it was now law.

11 Feared Dead

SEATTLE (UPI) — Eleven Greek seamen are believed to have perished in the fiery collision between the Liberian tanker Mandoil II and a freighter in the Pacific Ocean 300 miles off the Washington-Oregon coast.

Search planes yesterday flew over the area where the Mandoil had a huge gash ripped in her starboard bow when she collided Wednesday afternoon with the Japanese freighter Suwahara Maru.

Session Not Held

The scheduled meeting yesterday of the Kentfield Fire District board was not held because a director could not be present, Fire Chief Kenneth Kamp said. Next meeting date has not been set, he added.

Brown Still Fasts

NEW ORLEANS (UPI)—The attorney for H. Rap Brown said yesterday his client was holding up well despite a week-long hunger strike in his Orleans Parish jail cell.

"He is determined not to eat," said Murphy Bell of Baton Rouge, LA. "I took him a quart of orange juice but he refused to touch it. But he is doing fine."

BART Holds Off On Construction

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Because of financial difficulties, directors of the Bay Area Rapid Transit District have shelved $5.5 million in scheduled construction contracts.

The decision was made yesterday after the directors were informed that a proposed legislative auto tax boost in three BART counties probably will not gain passage.

All action on construction was deferred two weeks. Director Harry Lange of Oakland asked the directors to use whatever legislative influence they had to seek a way out of the dilemma.

Antibiotic Uses Alarm Drug Chief

WASHINGTON (UPI) —A government admission that it can do nothing prompted a call for legislation today to protect Americans from the needless peril of indiscriminate use of the Parke, Davis Co. antibiotic Chloromycetin.

Sen. Gaylord Nelson, D-Wis., chairman of a Senate subcommittee that has been looking into misuse of the drug, said some form of law was needed.

URGES RESTRICTIONS

"I think it may flatly restrict use of the drug to hospitals, and even then, approval by two doctors will be needed before it can be administered," he said.

In a startling admission yesterday, Commissioner James L. Goddard of the Food and Drug Administration (FDA) told the panel: "I'm at my wits end for doing what must be done. What it comes down to, in bald terms, is: What can be done to protect you from your doctors."

The FDA says the Chloromycetin, which has been on the market for 20 years, should be used only for serious infections like typhoid fever. But Goddars said that most of it was used to treat acne, colds and other minor ailments.

NEW WARNING

Goddard disclosed that the FDA is issuing a new warning to all doctors and hospitals cautioning against improper use of Chloromycetin.

The new warning, he said, lists leukemia as one of the possible side effects. The main effect discussed by other witnesses before the Senate panel was aplastic anemia, a disease affecting the body's ability to produce new blood.

Klansman In Chicago Linked To Death Plot

CHICAGO (UPI)—A policeman, who admitted heading the Ku Klux Klan in Illinois was accused yesterday of planning to assassinate Chicago Mayor Richard J. Daley by firing a bazooka rocket through a window of the mayor's home.

James Tobin, a fellow policeman, told of Donald Heath's plans to execute Daley, deputy police Supt. James M. Rochford and a former Chicago police captain, James Holzman, now director of public safety of Portland, Ore.

The execution plans, according to Tobin, were dropped so that the presidential aspirations of former Alabama Gov. George Wallace would not be torpedoed.

Tobin testified before a police board hearing considering whether to fire Heath because of his KKK activities. The board is to announce its decision April 5. Heath was suspended from the force along with two other accused Klansmen when their affiliations with the white supermacist organization became known in December. Three other alleged police-Klansmen resigned.

Heath, a veteran of seven years with the Chicago police force, dismissed the testimony as "childish dreams dreamed up by Tobin," whom he called "a liar, a child, a dreamer."

Tobin infiltrated the Klan by posing as a sympathizer. Tobin said Heath recruited him and that he took the KKK oath Sept. 24 with the knowledge of his supervisors. Tobin and Heath were patrolmen in the predominantly Negro Fillmore police district.

Tobin said Heath told him of plans to assassinate Daley so the Klan could "come out in the open with a big bang."

Tobin quoted Heath as saying, "we have to hit a city official, and we can't think of a better official to hit than Mayor Daley."

Chiesa Improved

San Rafael Police Chief Charles J. Chiesa, 56, was today reported "much improved and improving daily" at Ross General Hospital where he was admitted a week ago following a heart attack at his home. He is no longer in the intensive care unit.

LAMBISH OUTLOOK FOR MARCH

Few signs of lions in California are contained in 30-day maps drawn from U.S. Weather Bureau forecasts for March —which traditionally comes on like Leo and leaves like the lamb. For the Bay Area, things are supposed to be drier and warmer than seasonal. Average March temperatures for San Rafael range from 44 to 63 degrees, with last year's high 71 degrees on March 8 and low 37 on the 14th. Average March rainfall for San Rafael is 4.78 inches; last year saw 8.43 inches with a 1.95-inch storm on March 30.

Marin Students Will Vie For Bank's Scholarships

Twenty-five seniors from high schools in Marin County have been selected to represent their schools in the 1968 Bank of America Achievement Awards program.

Chosen by faculty members, the winners will receive trophies and have an opportunity to compete for cash awards ranging up to $1,000.

A committee will review records of the trophy winners, and chosen students will compete for the zone contest April 4 in San Rafael.

The trophy winners and their specific fields of study were:

San Rafael High School — James A. McGinnis, science and mathematics; Jay W. Lehmann, fine arts; Patricia R. Sempell, liberal arts; and Nancy G. Taverna, vocational arts.

Terra Linda High School — G. Jean Burns, science and mathematics; Ellen C. Ostern, fine arts; Jeffery V. Bacich, liberal arts; and Linda J. O'Leal, vocational arts.

Tamalpais High School — Kay Miller, science and mathematics; David Gilliam, fine arts; Wynne Hayakawa, liberal arts; and Betty Uithof, vocational arts.

Marin Catholic High Schoool — John Cumming, science and mathematics; and Anne O'Reilly, liberal arts.

Sir Francis Drake High School — Kim W. Mitchell, science and mathematics; Anne C. Hiaring, fine arts; Michael L. Tieney, liberal arts; and Kristine A. Long, vocational arts.

Novato High School — Robert Anderson, science and mathematics; Robert Cooper, fine arts; Leslie Sherman, liberal arts; and Lynn Welter, vocational arts.

Two Competing For Brown's Seat

Declarations of intent to run for the Assembly have been filed by the wife of a Black Panther and a state prison parolee.

The candidates are Kathleen Cleaver, wife of Eldridge Cleaver, minister of information for the Black Panther party, and Leonard Glaser, who was released from prison recently after serving 29 months for possession of marijuana.

The Peace and Freedom party said Glaser "intends to challenge the law which deprives him of his constitutional rights because he is a felon."

Glaser and Mrs. Cleaver say they will run against Assemblyman Willie L. Brown Jr. in San Francisco's 18th District.

Ex-Deputy To Assist Storer's Campaign

William Christensen, former deputy sheriff in the West Marin area, has been named West Marin Area coordinator for Thomas T. Storer's bid for re-election to the Fourth Supervisorial District seat.

Christensen, of Point Reyes Station, recently retired after serving as deputy sheriff in the area for 17 years. He also had served as constable for the Northwest Marin Judicial District Court.

Utah has a low death rate.

Terra Linda Tourney Set For Debaters

Fifty-four high schools are expected to be represented at a Golden Gate Speech Association debate tournament March 16 at Terra Linda High School.

This will be the first time the tournament has been held at Terra Linda. Mrs. Lenn B. Bragg, the school's debate coach, will enter five teams of Terra Linda students plus one team from San Rafael High School, where she only recently started an after-school debate club.

High schools in Marin, Contra Costa, Alameda, Sonoma, San Mateo and San Francisco counties are members of the association.

Topic for the March 16 debates will be, "Resolved: that Congress should establish uniform regulations to control criminal investigation procedures."

The debates will start at 8:30 a.m. and continue until 2:30 p.m., with a break for lunch. Awards will be presented at a program at 4:30 p.m. in the school cafeteria.

Woman Jailed On Drunken Driving

Edna May Waterman, 48, of 1470 Lincoln Avenue, San Rafael, was sentenced to five days in jail yesterday and fined $289 for driving while intoxicated Dec. 16 on Sir Francis Drake Boulevard in San Anselmo.

Mrs. Waterman, who has a prior conviction for the same offense, was also placed on six months of probation and ordered to attend the Municipal Court school on drinking offenses.

Dixie McGowen, 43, of Mill Valley, was fined $200 and placed on probation for six months for the same offense Dec. 24 on Miller Avenue, Mill Valley.

Students' Dope Charges Dropped

WOODSIDE (AP) — Following a conference of law enforcement officers, narcotics charges against 23 of 27 Woodside High School students have been dropped on grounds of insufficient evidence.

The 27 were among 40 youngsters arrested or cited in a raid at the high school Feb. 9.

The youths range in age from 13 to 18, many of them children of prominent Woodside families.

guerrillas used as a base to shell the airfield.

U. S. Navy and Coast Guard patrols caught three 100-foot steel trawlers carrying munitions trying to break through the Allied blockade on the South Vietnam coast.

They sank two of the three gun-runners in predawn battle and drove the third onto the beach where the crew blew the vessel and themselves up to avoid capture. A fourth big trawler turned tail and fled, not daring to enter South Vietnamese territorial waters, spokesmen said.

The Americans were forbidden to fire upon it because it was outside the 12-mile limit.

Though known to be hauling weapons and ammunition as part of the most brazen Communist attempt to infiltrate supplies into the South from the high seas, the trawler was neither boarded and searched nor challenged.

At the same time two 40-foot guerrilla sampans tried slipping into the Cua Viet River just under the North-South Vietnam border. U.S. Coast Guard cutters and Navy Swift boats caught them, sinking one and capturing the other. A third sampan gunrunner got caught by a U. S. Army 25th Infantry Division ambush patrol in a waterway only two miles north of Saigon's Tan Son Nhut airport and warbase.

The ambush patrol blew the arms-laden vessel apart.

Never had the Communists tried such a large blockade run. U. S. intelligence sources said the vessels made their fatal runs in an attempt to rearm Communist forces heavily depleted of weapons during the past month's urban warfare.

Military officials said the trawlers came from either North Vietnam or Communist China. Two American sailors were injured in the incidents.

In other action, U. S. spokesmen said American jets hitting North Vietnam yesterday bombed for the first time the big transportation complex seven miles west of Hanoi. They hit 12 truck terminal buildings. Other jets bombed the Ha Dong Army barracks eight miles south of the capital, striking 45 buildings capable of housing 1,200 troops.

They also reported that a two-man Air Force F105 Thunderchief was shot down over North Vietnam by groundfire yesterday. The two crewmen were listed as missing. Their craft was the 806th U. S. plane reported lost over North Vietnam.

Red Mortars Down Plane At Khe Sanh

KHE SANH, South Vietnam (UPI)—A C123 transport plane was shot down by Communist mortar fire today as it tried to get off the ground at this U.S. Marine base. One passenger aboard the plane was injured, and three newsmen who rushed to the scene of the wreckage were wounded in a subsequent mortar attack.

UPI photographer David Powell said a few minutes after the crash mortar rounds exploded near the cluster of newsmen and Marines who had rushed forward to help the passengers out of the burning plane.

At least three in the crowd were injured. None was believed seriously hurt and identification was not immediately available.

"I saw the C123 lifting off, it flew a few feet off the ground and just came back down again," Powell said.

Powell said the plane skidded sideways towards the sandbagged trench which is the Khe Sanh press center and hit the wreckage of a C130 transport that was downed two weeks ago. Three quarters of the right wing flew off and the plane nosed into the dirt and burst into flames, Powell said.

Viet President Weeps, Warns Of Corruption

SAIGON (UPI)—With tears in his eyes, President Nguyen Van Thieu said Friday that corruption in South Vietnam is a national shame. He said he was determined to stop it.

"We may lose our motherland —not by enemy military or political conquest —but because of corruption," Thieu said in a speech inaugurating a training course for military officers in the provinces. Tears clouded his eyes as he spoke.

"There has been a lot of criticism from foreigners on the question of corruption," he said. "We are humiliated by this state of corruption and we are humiliated by these criticisms.

"The eradication of corruption will be a difficult task requiring long, sustained efforts. It cannot be accomplished overnight because corruption is so deeply rooted. It is the result of 100 years of colonial rule and 20 years of war.

"We should realize that this is a national shame. No anticorruption techniques will help as long as we are not conscious of this shame."

Ferry System Bill Advances

I-J Special Report

SACRAMENTO — Legislation to allow Marin and San Francisco counties to operate a ferry system yesterday passed the Assembly Transportation and Commerce Committe.

The bill (AB 257), introduced by Assemblyman John L. Burton, D-San Francisco, would extend the existing authority of counties separated by a navigable river to operate a ferry system to counties separated by a navigable bay.

The bill went to the Assembly floor for a vote.

mended by the California Commission on Hospital Standards. But Reagan told a news conference earlier this week he did not know when the new standards would go into effect.

The CMA found the state's physical facilities in "reasonably adequate repair" but said building maintenance in most hospitals was "on an emergency basis."

"Grounds, basic equipment and many structures show evidence of inadequate maintenance in numerous situations," the report said. It cited peeling paint, damaged plaster, broken windows numbering several hundred in one hospital and uncared-for grounds. It said this condition was "common."

As to personnel morale, the report said: "Uncertainty about the future is creating personnel problems throughout the entire hospital system. Budget and policy developments will be watched closely by the personnel."

Seashore Food Machines Sought

More than 700,000 people visited Drakes Beach and the Point Reyes National Seashore last year and now the federal Department of the Interior is looking for people to feed this year's visitors.

Prospective concessionaires for the installation and operation of vending machines at Drakes Beach have until April 15 to make offers to the Seashore Headquarters at Point Reyes.

The vending machines should provide hot and cold drinks, candy, gum, cigarettes and other non-perishable types of snacks, according to Supt. Edward J. Kurtz.

Dinner Meeting

Dr. Alan F. Guttmacher, president of Planned Parenthood/World Population, will talk about the "Revolution in Sex Attitudes and Planned Parenthood Responsibility" at the annual dinner meeting of the Planned Parenthood Association of Marin at 6:30 p.m. tomorrow at Peacock Gap Country Club.

GATE

$9 million surplus, director William D. Hadeler of San Francisco told the supervisors. He estimated that these reserves will grow by $4 million a year.

Hadeler suggested that the bridge district could start returning this surplus to the counties in the district, but Supervisor Leo McCarthy said "we'll be lucky if we can hold onto that money to solve our own transit problems." The Southern California-dominated Legislature may try to shift the funds to solve transportation problems outside of the Golden Gate corridor, he suggested.

Foran also has introduced a bill (AB 174) to dissolve the district, a bill he terms "a sword of Damocles" to encourage the bridge board to support his other bill. He told the Independent-Journal yesterday he did not know whether he now would push AB 174 in light of the bridge board's request for major amendments of AB 175.

The San Francisco supervisors' streets and transportation and state and national affairs committees after their hearing killed Supervisor Jack Morrison's request that they reconsider their policy that the district be dissolved after its bonds are repaid in 1971, the board's position since 1953.

The five supervisors agreed to "hammer out" a resolution taking a stand on the Foran bills in about a week. They did not indicate which they would support, but if they are consistent with their 1953 stand, they can be expected to support AB 174.

8 is not on the check. The money apparently went into a phony account, said Mitchell.

"This certainly points out the necessity of having a strong internal control and a check and balance system which I feel is thoroughly covered in Marin County," said Mitchell.

The auditor said the Alameda County district attorney wants him to appear before the Alameda County Grand Jury to certify that these two checks were paid by Marin County to ABAG.

Mitchell said he cannot understand why the auditors, who investigated ABAG's books, did not come across the missing funds paid by counties such as Marin.

Bagley Introduces New Gifted Child Education Bill

I-J Special Report

SACRAMENTO — A bill to improve methods for identifying mentally gifted children from disadvantaged families was introduced in the Legislature yesterday by Assemblyman William T. Bagley, R-San Rafael.

The bill is closely related to legislation Bagley introduced earlier this month to establish pilot programs to identify and educationally challenge mentally, but culturally disadvantaged children. The new bill is designed to include in special education programs gifted children "whose talents may not be easily recognized," Bagley said.

These children often do poorly on standard tests designed to identify mentally gifted children, he said, because of their home life and environment. Separate criteria for identifying these children would be set up by the state Board of Education under Bagley's bill.

Chrysanthemums Experts Will Speak

Four specialists will discuss chrysanthemums at a meeting of the Redwood Shade Garden Club at 8 p.m., March 8, at Whitaker Hall, St. Stephen's Church, Belvedere.

Speakers from the Marin Chrysanthemum Society will be Norman Stroyd, who will talg about grafting, Mrs. Bernard H. Keener, bonsai types, and Ivan Johnson, standard and cascade types.

Peking Issue Splits Session Of Communists

COMBINED AP & UPI

BUDAPEST — The Soviet-sponsored world Communist Party meeting split wide open today over the scope of a Communist summit conference asked later this year by Russia, a delegation chief reported. It already had been stunned by Romania's walkout yesterday.

The conference is divided on whether the highly controversial key problem of the Sino-Soviet ideological split should be kept out of the fall summit conference. British Party Secretary Jack Woddis said there were two sharply divergent views.

BACK RUSSIA

He said the majority backs Russia's call for a summit later this year in Moscow but there is disagreement on what it should do. Some insisted the meeting deal with a single item — "imperialist aggression." The others want it to discuss differences within the Communist movement and to set up binding ideological guidelines.

Observers said it was clear such a plan was doomed from the start in the light of the vast and unbridgeable differences not only between Moscow and Peking but because of the differences among other parties, with Romania the most recent example.

A communique issued today after an all-night huddle of conference officials expressed regret over the Romanian action.

WALKS OUT

The Romanian delegation walked out last night after failing to win acceptance for two demands: repudiation of a Syrian attack on Romania's position on the Arab-Israeli question, and a promise that there would be no more attacks on Red China or any other Communist party during the remainder of the session. The Romanians accused the Kremlin of Stalinist tactics.

Romania has objected all along to Soviet pressure for a world Communist conference. The Romanians argued that since Red China did not want such a conference, to hold one would solidify the break.

The walkout came when Khaled Baghdash, the leader of the Syrian Communist party, accused the Romanians of being pro-Israeli because theirs was the only Communist government that refused to charge Israel with aggression in the June war.

First Visitor In Nine Years For Inmate Tomorrow

Robert Chip, 38, a San Quentin prisoner, will have his first visitor in nine years tomorrow at 8 a.m. under a new program of the Seven Step Foundation.

His mother, Beatrice Smith of South San Gabriel, Los Angeles County, will be flown up from home to see her son who is serving and indeterminate sentence for second-degree robbery and two parole violations.

The meeting, arranged by the voluntary organization which assists prison inmate and former inmate rehabilitation, under the foundation's new Air Lift Program which will provide a guest for a lonely inmate each month.

The case of Dr. Donald Churchill of Sausalito, charged with illegally prescribing narcotics and falsifying medical records, was today continued to March 15 in San Francisco Superior Court.

The hearing was set for 9:30 a.m. in Department 22 in the Hall of Justice. The continuance was at the request of James Reilly, attorney for Churchill. Churchill was arrested at his San Francisco office Jan. 16.

a tyranny of the minority."

The picket lines were honored by 2,000 unionized janitors, cafeteria workers and delivery truck drivers.

Mayor Joseph Alioto called for resumption of negotiations between Jenkins and union later today.

At Mission High School, one of the city's largest, 75 of 125 teachers did not report for work. About 500 students milled on the front steps in a holiday atmosphere, cheering the striking teachers.

Earlier yesterday, Superior Court Judge Andrew E. Eyman granted a petition by the CTA enjoining the union and Supt. Jenkins from negotiating improvements in the school system.

It forbids bargaining outside the school district's Negotiating Council.

The Classroom Teachers Association is a participant in the Council but the AFT has boycotted the council.

Supt. Jenkins had agreed to meet with the union again March 6 but officials said this was not soon enough.

In Florida, school books gathered more dust as the statewide strike of 22,000 teachers entered its 10th day. A possibility that classes would reopen in the Sunshine State looked bleak after one of the state's biggest school boards rejected a compromise settlement, and Gov. Claude Kirk struck at the plan as unionism."

One strike, however, was ended yesterday — in Albuquerque, N.M., where 2,500 of the city's 2,900 teachers walked out for more pay, lighter class loads and improved facilities. After Gov. David Cargo agreed to appoint a nine-man panel to find more revenue for the state education program, regular classes resumed for the 80,000 students who had enjoyed a week of winter vacation.

Strikes continued today in Pittsburgh and in the St. Louis suburb of Wellston. In Oklahoma City, the Oklahoma Education Association yesterday called for a one-way statewide "professional holiday" by its 27,000 teachers next Wednesday to try to convince the legislature to push through a school bill and tax package.

In Pittsburgh, about one-quarter of the city's 77,000 public school students were sent home yesterday, after the Pittsburgh Federation of Teachers struck the city's 108 schools.

Clifford Begins Pentagon Chore

WASHINGTON (UPI) —President Johnson welcomed Clark M. Clifford to the Cabinet as Secretary of Defense today with a renewed pledge that control of American military might "firmly and forever" would reside in civilian hands.

Clifford took the oath of office in a ceremony in the White House East Room. The oath was administered by Chief Justice Earl Warren.

Quentin Inmate Stabbed In Back

A 24-year-old San Quentin inmate was stabbed in the back yesterday in the disciplinery section of the South Block.

Pete LeClerc, Los Angeles County, suffered a punctured lung but was reported in satisfactory condition today in the prison hospital, said Associate Warden James W. L. Park. Officers were questioning a suspect.

Park said LeClerc was found on the third tier of the block. Officers also found a prison-made knife with a six-inch blade.

The victim is serving a five year-to-life sentence for first degree robbery and a six-to-15-year term for second degree burglary. He had been at San Quentin since last October.

OBITUARIES

Dorothy Cannon Dies At 51

Requiem Mass for Dorothy Mae Cannon, 51, will be offered tomorrow at 9:30 a.m. at Mission San Rafael Arcangel. Rosary will be recited today at 8 p.m. at Harry M. Williams Mirtuary, and burial will be in Mount Olivet Cemetery.

Mrs. Cannon, wife of William R. Cannon of 895 Adrian Way, Santa Venetia, died in a local hospital Wednesday after a short illness.

A native of Minnesota, she had lived in California 17 years, the past two and a half in Marin County.

In addition to her husband, she is survived by two daughters, Colleen and Penny Marie Cannon, both of San Rafael; four sons, Patrick A., James A. and Michael T. Cannon, all of San Rafael, and Joseph Cannon, with the Navy in Beeville, Tex.; a brother, L. T. Keogan of Spokane, Wash., and three grandchildren.

JUANITA HALL

BAY SHORE, N.Y. (AP)—Juanita Hall, 66, Broadway actress and singer best known for her role as Bloody Mary in the stage and movie versions of "South Pacific," died yesterday night. Her career began in her teens when she appeared in "Lew Leflie's Blackbirds" on Broadway.

JACOB LANCH

Jacob Lanch, 85-year-old father of Estel Moran of Greenbrae, died yesterday in a local hospital after a long illness.

A native of Poland, he spent his early years in London and came to the United States at the age of 18.

He had made his home in a local convalescent home for about five years.

He is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Moran and Mrs. Mildred Halpern of San Lorenzo; five grandchildren; and two great-grandchildren.

Funeral arrangements are being made by N. Gray and Son, San Francisco.

JOHN S. PALO

John Sanfrid Palo, 59, of 128 Alder Avenue, San Anselmo, a retired auto parts worker, died yesterday at a local hospital after a long illness.

Before his illness, Palo was employed in the auto parts department of Redwood Lincoln-Mercury in San Francisco, and previously had worked in San Rafael.

A native of Rocklin, Placer County, Palo had been a resident of Marin for more than 30 years.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Lucy Palo; a daughter, Mrs. Geraldine Steinborn of Novato; a son, Clyde Palo; his mother, Mrs. Matti Palo of Rocklin; a sister, Mrs. Irene Guilliford of Lincoln, Placer County, and four grandchildren.

Memorial services will be held at 8 p.m. tomorrow at St. John's Episcopal Church, Ross. The family prefers memorial gifts to favorite charities.

FELICIE ROBERT

Funeral for Felicie Athernour Robert, 77, mother of Edouard Robert of San Rafael, was held in Sonoma today. She died there Tuesday in a convalescent hospital.

Mrs. Robert, a native of California, had lived in Sonoma three years.

She is survived by her husband, Alexis Robert of Sonoma; her daughter, Mrs. Josephine Deny of Sonoma; a sister, Mrs. Helen Dempsey of Redwood City, eight grandchildren and one greatgrandchild.

State Pact On Phoenix Lake Passes

Directors of Marin Municipal Water District yesterday approved an agreement with the state Fish and Game Department to rehabilitate Phoenix Dam Lake area for recreation.

The board authorized Robert G. Anderson, president, to sign three documents, leasing 70 acres of Phoenix Dam land to the department for $1 a year, for a 20-year period.

The state will provide funds of $90,000 for reconstruction of the dam and the district will pay $62,000 for a total of $152,000 estimated for the job.

The district will provide public fishing facilities and maintenance at the dam under the agreement.

Marin Municipal Water District directors also:

HIRED CONTROLLER—In a closed session following the regular meeting, interviewed for candidates for the position of assistant controller. Then in open session hired Peter R. Gilliam, 44, of 332 Pinehill Road, Mill Valley. Gilliam will start April 1 at a salary of $13,150 and will assist Robert J. Brusatori, Controller Gilliam is presently controller for the San Francisco advertising firm of Jack Wodell Associates.

LINE RELOCATION — Accepted an agreement with the state Division of Highways at a cost of $4,060 to the district to relocate a water line north of Terra Linda for Hamilton Air Force Base. The division will pay the balance of the $20,000 job.

FINAL PAYMENTS — Agreed to make final payments of $548 to A. J. Bresnan Co., San Rafael, for paving two tank lots and to Merz Bros, San Rafael, of $1,157 for excavation of the lots.

Many Questions Arise Over Mental Health

Representatives of various organizations concerned with mental health raised a host of questions last night about the operation of the Community Mental Health Center under construction at Marin General Hospital.

They had been called together by Ray K. Bolinger, Marin General Hospital administrator, and Thomas F. Campanella, Marin County assistant administrator, to discuss the new center and its servies.

"NOT STOPPING"

Campanella reported that the existing level of services would be continued. "We're not stopping anything we've been doing."

The present expectation is that the first wing of the mental health center will open in October, and the second wing by April of 1969, Campanella said.

Bolinger explained that each wing will have 14 beds for in-patients and 26 units for day care. The patient units would be on the periphery of a living-dining area, and there will be three intensive care units in each wing. There also will be multi-purpose rooms for recreation such as music and reading, he noted.

Dr. W. L. Bewley of Tiburon protested because there is no provision for children at the center. "They shouldn't be discriminated against," he said.

Campanella said the matter of center services for children "is not a closed subject."

Nicholas M. Suntzeff, executive director of the Family Service Agency of Marin, objected because there has been no formula set for private and public use.

FIRST-SERVE BASIS

As proposed the center would be available on a first-come-first-served basis for both private and public patients.

Under this arrangement the center could be entirely filled with private patients or with public patients, Suntzeff said.

He also opposed the action by county supervisors which placed administration of services under Marin General Hospital.

Dr. Edwin P. Brennan, representing the Marin Psychiatric Society, contended that the first order of business is to hire a director for the center.

The group voted that Dr. Clyde G. Miller, director of Marin County Community Mental Health Services and a member of the Marin County Mental Health Advisory Board be named to the selection committee screening applicants for the director's post.

Among those at the meeting were representatives of the Mental Health Advisory Board, the Mental Health Association, the Marin Psychiatric Society and the Inter-Agency Committee on Mental Health Needs.

The group agreed to meet again next Thursday at 8 p.m. at the Coral Room, Marin General Hospital, to continue talks.

Health Panel Delays On Director Naming

A steering committee for the new Marin County Comprehensive Health Planning Council will consider nominations for a temporary board of directors at 7:30 a.m. Wednesday at Woodlands Restaurant, Kentfield.

The task was scheduled yesterday "but didn't get done," said Donald W. Sower, executive secretary of the Marin Medical Society.

Proposal Deadline For Downtown Plans

The four planning consultant firms being considered to prepare a downtown development plan in Novato have been asked to submit proposals at the March 14 meeting of the downtown study committee.

The committee last night worked on letters which will go to the four firms, outlining proposal guidelines. The firms are Williams, Mocine and Cook of San Francisco, Arthur D. Little of San Francisco, Duncan and Jones of Berkeley and Fedway Cook of San Francisco.

Fairfax Planners Asking New Design Review Policy

An ordinance requiring a six months waiting period before a plan rejected by the design review board can be resubmbmitted was unanimously recommended to the city council last night by the Fairfax Planning Commission.

The ordinance would allow earlier resubmission of plans if significant changes have been made.

The commission also recommended granting of special use permits to John Arms and George Skiff Ford III for a paperback book store at 31 Bolinas Road and to Frank Fuchs for a used car lot next to 31 Bolinas Road.

Special use permit was also recommended for Elmer M. Beasley for a lithographic arts studio at 28 Bolinas Road.

The commission's hearing on revoking of a variance permit granted to Mr. and Mrs. James P. Wenster, 28 Spring Lane, was put over to the next meeting, March 28, as a tie vote resulted.

Also postponed until the next meeting were requests by Richard A. Kahn for a lot-split at 76 Manzanita Road and by Duane Simpson to purchase city property adjacent to 199 Scenic Road.

Commissioners Leo T. Cronin, chairman, and Albert E. Gately were absent last night.

Marinites Named Dove Delegates

I-J Special Report

SACRAMENTO — Four Marin residents have been named to the slate of anti-war Democratic national convention delegates pledged to the presidential candidacy of Sen. Eugene McCarthy of Minnesota.

The four are William M. Bennett of Kentfield, June O. Degnan of Ross, Phillip Drath of San Rafael and Hans J. Schiller of Mill Valley. Drath is a peace candidate for the Democratic congressional nomination in the sixth district.

The list of 172 names was filed with the Secretary of State Wednesday, and will appear on the June 4 primary ballot against a slate favoring President Johnson.

Also on the list were Dr. George McCabe of Sonoma County, unsuccessful Democratic congressional nominee in 1964 in the first district; Assemblyman John L. Burton, D-San Francisco; California Democratic Council president Gerald N. Hill of San Francisco and San Francisco Supervisor Jack Morrison.

Among delegates from Los Angeles County were Edmund G. Brown Jr., son of the former governor, and television actor Robert Vaughn.

Biblical Names Return To Map

JERUSALEM (UPI)—The biblical names of Judea and Samaria returned to official maps of the Holy Land today.

Israel eliminated the term "enemy territory" in describing Arab land conquered in the Middle East war. Officials said the government henceforth will refer to former Jordamian land on the River Jordan's west bank as Judea in the north and Samaria in the south.

Government spokesmen said the change had no political significance and did not indicate an Israeli decision to assume permanent ownership of the territory.

State Bar Says Reardon Plan Is Not Binding

The State Bar of California is not bound by the American Bar Association's endorsement of the Reardon report and does not consider the matter of rules on release of information regarding court cases to be of urgent importance.

This statement was issued in San Francisco yesterday by John H. Finger, California State Bar president.

The Reardon rules, adopted by the American Bar Association, would very closely restrict the information about criminal cases that could be given the public by district attorneys and law enforcement agencies. The rules also endorse the holding of closed court hearings.

Finger said the State Bar of California since 1959 has had before its board of governors "a variety of proposals" concerning information to be released by lawyers.

"The State Bar has regarded the problem as important but has not regarded it as one of urgency," he said. "The State Bar would seek an exchange of views with the press before any action was proposed, as it has always done in the past."

The ABA's adoption of the Reardon report "will, of course, come before the board of governors in due course," Finger said. However: "It should be made clear . . . that the State Bar is a constitutional agency of the State of California and is in no way bound by any action or recommendation of the American Bar Association."

The California Freedom of Information Committee, meeting yesterday in Sacramento, commended the State Bar's stand.

In a letter to Finger by Larry Sisk of San Diego, an official of Copley Newspapers and committee chairman, the Freedom of Information Committee offered "fullest cooperation" in seeking a solution to any problem of fair trial as affected by publicity and added:

"It is our strong belief that restrictions proposed by the Reardon report would withhold information the public must have."

The committee, made up of representatives of news media, advised Finger it would fight any judges or law enforcement officials "who do not have the wisdom to follow your lead, and who might arbitrarily impose restrictions in advance of any requirement to do so."

The committee also adopted a resolution deploring the action by a Ventura County Superior Court judge who barred the public and press from major portions of a murder trial.

Couple's Hearing On Hashhish Is Postponed

A hearing before the U.S. Commissioner in San Francisco for Mr. and Mrs. Philip Davenport of Larkspur, arrested when 13 pounds of hashish was found in a suitcase they claimed at San Francisco Airport, has been postponed until March 12.

Seafood Speciality House Opens Its Doors Today In San Rafael

To the many who have long decried the lack of a fresh seafood restaurant in San Rafael — there is one here now.

Newly opened today at 909 Lincoln Avenue is The Grotto, where Stanley and Ursula Valan of San Anselmo have set out to build up the type of place you would expect to find at Fisherman's Wharf in San Francisco. A la carte selections and seafood sandwiches of all types will be the fare. It's not a self-service operation. An application for a beer and wine license is pending.

Stan is a former accountant, but wife Ursula is descended from a long line of restaurateurs and was trained in Europe. She is also well known in seafood circles at Fisherman's Wharf. For the present they will be open seven days a week from 11:30 a.m. to 10 p.m.

Stan holds he'll serve the freshest and best seafood he can buy and he intends to travel to the city every day at 5 a.m. to get it.

TODAY, MARCH 1, is the opening of the season for Golden Bear Lodge at Kenwood, where on Adobe Canyon Road Art Dieterle and Gene Boulware have one of Sonoma County's most delightful restaurants. My mouth waters just to think of the sumptious smorgasbord table. It's an easy drive from Marin.

THE 117-YEAR OLD Mark West Lodge north of Santa Rosa is another Sonoma County restaurant having its seasonal opening at this time. Owner Rene Pavel offers a fine French menu for anyone who is willing to take the drive. It's about an hour's ride from central Marin.

Take the 101 Highway north of Santa Rosa to Fulton and turn east on Mark West Springs Road that leads to Calistoga. Continue until you come to a huge grapevine that extends across the road.

ALWAYS POPULAR in the list of entrees at the Old Viking in Lagunitas is duck. Phyllis Mattson has a way of cooking it that invariably brings sounds of satisfaction from the diners who order it. I can't rightly say that her recipe in this case is Swedish but the important thing is the way it tastes.

Right now, there's a special on for a complete duck dinner for $3.85 at the Viking, well worth the short ride to Lagunitas to enjoy it. Dinner hours are from 5:30 to 9 p.m. during the week, to 10:30 on weekends and from 1:30 p.m. on Sundays. Day of closing is Wednesday.

No lunches are being served here this time of the year; they will be renewed during the summer months.

PICTORIAL EXHIBIT this month at Rubini's in Fairfax features the paintings of KSFO program director Al Newman, who has taken a number of awards.

Rubini's is a place where it pays to read the menu beyond the steak section (even though it's known for its fine New Yorks), and even ask what chef Gordon Jones might be in the process of concocting out in the kitchen. He's not a static chef; he's always looking for new ideas and experimenting.

As I recall it he was one of the first in the county, if not the very first, to pick up the now popular steak and lobster combination several years ago, when it moved to California from Australia.

He may have something new in mind that hasn't yet reached the permanent menu stage. It won't hurt to ask, and you may come up with a winner.

CERTAINLY one of the more spectacular restaurants in Oakland — and possible the superlative should be used here —is the Mirabeau, which opened less that five months ago in the Kaiser Center on 20th Street near the lake.

It adjoins the roof garden at the third floor level and is reached either by private elevator or an escalator from the 20th Street mall.

Oakland has an impressive skyline although differing from San Francisco's. Buildings are farther apart. Diners at the Mirabeau look out on this uncrowded scene from their tables across a beautifully landscaped roof garden. Pedestrians in the garden look back without embarrassment. The view from either vantage point is too captivating in its entirety to indulge in focusing more than casually on the individuals involved.

The restaurant's interior features vermillion carpeting, wood paneling and richly-printed velvet wall coverings, a mural cast in soft stone behind the bar in the cocktail lounge, and tables widely spaced in the dining room.

GORDON JONES
Tries new dishes

Working partners are Gilbert Bathe and John Hamilton, both formerly active in Marin. The chef is an amiable Frenchman, Andre Pierre Mercier, schooled, trained and a "graduate" executive chef in the best traditions of his own country and top American restaurants.

In the short time the place has been open its success has already become assured. Businessmen from Oakland and all over the Bay Area flock in for lunches. The Kaiser Center, which houses something like 4,100 employees, contributes its share.

Dinners are also doing exceptionally well and I can foresee that Mirabeau's popularity this summer will increase threefold. There is an outside roof section standing by for future use and al fresco expansion.

Menu is predominantly a la carte in the fashion of such restaurants. Your tab can get out of hand if you don't watch it. But there is an excellent group of complete dinners classified as "Le Six a Dix" priced from $5.50 to $6.50. If you order sumptuiously and pay high for your pleasure, don't think of the check, think of the food.

IF YOU ARE an easterner or a midwesterner or happen to be entertaining one, you or he may find nostalgia in a chat with Allan Johnstone, host at Inn Marin in the Strawberry Town and Country Village. Though he is a native Californian, Allan has worked at many of the top places in Chicago and on the East Coast. Mention one and he can probably tell you all about it.

AN INTERESTING San Francisco spot which has no downtown parking problems is The Old Library at 11th and Clement Street. dinners start at $2.95 and include a variety of continental dishes and several steaks. Take care that you don't go overboard on the hot chopped chicken livers and hors d'oeuvres at the start or you may create an internal parking problem and not even have room for your entree.

All Nite Flight is the name of the rock band playing for listening and dancing Tuesday through Saturday nights, starting at 9:15 p.m. Casual groups are booked for Sundays and Mondays.

AT THE TRIDENT in Sausalito, Jimmy Witherspoon, celebrated blues singer and star of the Monterey Jazz Festival, has joined the Don Scletta Trio for a few days. Their engagement will be up by next Tuesday, when Meridian West, a folk-rock quartet, returns for a two-week engagement.

THE SUNDAY JAZZ SESSSION is one feature at Taberna in San Rafael that has been building up attendance almost every week. Families come by for the spaghetti feed and music. Sit-in musicians from all over the Bay Area are not uncommon. Current attraction is Al Plank and his group which includes Tom Reynolds on bass and Tuzzy Firth on bass.

No Contest Plea In Petty Theft Charge

Anne Rose Millonzi, 40, of Kentfield, pleaded no contest in Marin Municipal Court yesterday to a charge of petty thieving from Macy's in San Rafael.

Mrs. Millonzi was accused of stealing less then $200 from her cash register in the department store last year. She was ordered to return to court March 22 for sentencing.

Burglar Clouts Worker, Flees

Stanley Frank Kowalski, 56, of Mill Valley, was treated at Marin General Hospital for a cut scalp after being hit over the head yesterday when he apparently surprised a would-be thief in a Sausalito ceramics plant.

Kowalski, an employee at Heath Ceramics on Gate 5 Road, entered the plant at 12:05 a.m. and was hit over the left eye as he entered a darkened storage room.

Kowalski, of 35 Cascade Way, was momentarily stunned. He recovered and called police, who found a three-foot board which apparently was the weapon. Nothing appeared to be missing from the plant.

To Youth Court

Scott Harris Armour, 18, of Sausalito, was certified to Marin Juvenile Court yesterday to face a charge of possessing marijuana Feb. 11 in a car parked in Tiburon.

UNITY AFLOAT?

Brown Attends Unruh Function

COMBINED AP & UPI

SAN FRANCISCO — The fellows got together last night for a flesh-pressing, back-slapping stag affair in honor of Assembly Speaker Jesse M. Unruh.

About 350 of the party faithful gathered at the Sons of Italy Hall deep in the Mission District to gossip, swig whisky, munch pasta and figure who was going to do what to whom this election year.

Unruh and former Gov. Edmund G. Brown were the centers of attraction. Appearing fit, tanned and a wee bit chubby, the two master politicians sat on opposite sides of the speakers rostrum.

STAG AFFAIR

Although billed as a stag — "for men only"—about a half-dozen scantily clad young girls were marching around selling drink tickets and raffles.

". . . The way I dope it out," said one fellow to his companion, "Brown and Unruh hate each other and they both hate Yorty and Reagan . . ."

Elsewhere in the room another man was saying, "You can't predict a thing this year . . . Johnson? . . . well, what the heck. . ."

The hall was thickly hung with 37 semi-circular drapings of red-white-and-blue bunting. Portraits of Democrats wishing to be re-elected or get into office graced the walls.

Two Republicans were on the wall too, in the same photograph — Gov. Ronald Reagan and former Sen. Barry Goldwater. Reagan was speaking.

Behind him was a photograph of Goldwater and the motto, "In your heart you know he's right."

HEAD TABLE

Behind the head table was a huge, flattering portrait of President Harry S Truman. One of the guests muttered darkly, "Is that the only man we can agree on any more?"

Prior to last night's clambake, it was reported Brown was threatening to boycott the convention delegation pledges to President Johnson if two nominess of Yorty are on the slate.

Brown reportedly objects to the mayor's nomination of Phil Regan, a former singer, and George W. Rochester, La Habra attorney and former state senator.

On the Republican side, former state Finance Director Gordon Paul Smith sas cleared the way for a confrontation between the liberal and conservative factions of California's Republican Party with his announcement he won't seek the GOP nomination for the U.S. Senate.

Smith said yesterday he is leaving the contest to incumbent U. S. Sen. Thomas Kuchel, a liberal Republican, and state superintendent of public instruction Max Rafferty, an exponent of the party's conservative wing.

"In the interest of providing the Republican Party in Calitornia with a clear cut choice of candidates, I have decided not to enter the primary," Smith said.

Smith left the door ajar for a possible quest for a major office in the 1970 elections.

GOV. TOM McCALL

Rockefeller Faithful Calls For Push Now

WASHINGTON (AP) — Two Republican governors have advised their colleagues they better start pushing a draft-Rockefeller bandwagon now or it may never get rolling.

Govs. Spiro T. Agnew of Maryland and Tom McCall of Oregon, who long have urged Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller to enter the GOP presidential race, expressed certainty yesterday the New Yorker will not lend himself to any last-ditch attempt by party moderates to stop former Vice President Richard M. Nixon.

Agnew and McCall made clear they are interpreting Rockefeller's position as demanding substantial support from party moderates—including most of the 26 GOP governors—before he'll consider running.

The advice by the two Rockefeller backers was indirectly echoed by Nixon, left virtually alone in the GOP race by the abrupt withdrawal of Michigan Gov. George Romney.

Nixon said in New Hampshire that Rockefeller will have to enter some state presidential primaries if he wants the nomination.

"No one is going to be drafted for this nomination," said Nixon. "No one is going to back into it."

Whether the 21 GOP state executives attending the National Governors Conference in Washington would find time to caucus among themselves remained questionable.

McCall said he hoped to circulate a round-robin to the governors by mail and get 15 or 16 of them to sign, urging Rockefeller to make himself available as a candidate before the March 19 close of filing in Oregon's May 28 primary.

If that can be accomplished and accompanied by a petition signed by about 30,000 oregon citizens, McCall predicted Rockefeller would change his mind.

The Oregon governor forecast an almost dead heat between Nixon and Rockefeller if both were on the Oregon ballot. He indicated he doesn't think a write-in for the New York governor, now being organized, could top Nixon's total if the latter were the only major contender formally on the ballot.

Agnew indicated he also may circulate a round-robin. He said he thinks this must be done within 30 days if it is to be effective.

GOP Gov. John A. Volpe of Massachusetts, chairman of the National Governors Conference, told a news conference he doesn't believe there will be unanimity at this time among the Republican state executives on a candidate.

Rice fields are now seeded by airplanes.

Kennan Calls Viet Policy Gross Error

NEWARK, N.J. (UPI) — George F. Kennan, former U.S. Ambassador to the Soviet Union last night branded U.S. involvement in the Vietnam war as "a massive miscalculation error of policy."

He said it was hard to find a worse error in the history of the nation.

Kennan, now a professor at the Institute for Advanced Studies at Princeton University, delivered the blistering attack while introducing Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy, D-Minn., to an overflow dinner gathering in the Military Park Hotel. It was Kennan's first public comment on the Vietnam war in two years.

He said the nation can look forward to either "indefinite escalation" of the war, which probably would draw the Red Chinese or the Russians into the conflict, or "a frustration and humiliation unique in our national experience."

He said that the nation is now in a situation more serious than in the days of Pearl Harbor.

In a hard knock at President Johnson and other administration leaders, Kennan said that in their direction of the war "they have pushed stubbornly and heedlessly ahead, like men in a dream, seemingly insensitive to outside opinion, seemingly unable to arrive at any realistic effects of their own acts."

Kennan said that no conceivable political outcome could justify the suffering and destruction wrought by the war.

Romney Gives His Backers Free Choice

WASHINGTON (UPI) —Gov. George Romney of Michigan, who stepped out of the presidential race two days ago, said today he will not urge his New Hampshire supporters to back Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller or any other candidate in that state's March 12 primary.

Romney, in a telephone news conference linking Washington and Manchester, N. H., said that he will dedicate his efforts in the 1968 campaign to working for Republican unity and victory.

He said he will join other Republican governors in trying to unify behind some presidential candidate.

Asked specifically if he would now endorse New York's Gov. Rockefeller, who says he is not a candidate but would accept a "genuine dratt," Romney told a New Hampshire questioner:

"I have not endorsed anyone for the Republican nomination. I have indicated I am prepared to work with Republican governors and others as a group to get behind a candidate —and I'm willing to support that candidate."

Then asked if he would urge his New Hampshire supporters to back a write-in vote for Rockefeller or any other candidate, Romney firmly replied:

"I will not urge my supporters in New Hampshire to support any candidate in the New Hampshire primary. I have indicated I think they ought to make their own independent decisions."

Romney, wearing a dark blue suit and accompanied by his wife Lenore, picked up the telephone before assembled Washington newsmen and then made the statement heard in both cities.

He said that he and Mrs. Romney "never felt happier in our lives or more relieved" that they now could resume normal lives.

Today is Friday, March 1, the 61st day of 1968 with 305 to follow.

The moon is between its new phase and first quarter. The morning star is Venus. The evening stars are Mars, Saturn and Jupiter.

On this day in history:

In 1781 the American colonies adopted the Articles of Confederation, paving the way for a federal union.

In 1872 a Civil Rights Act by Congress provided for the right of Negroes to serve on juries and guaranteed them equal rights in public places.

In 1932 the 20-month-old son of Col. Mrs. Charles Lindberg was kidnaped near Hopewell, N.J., a $50,000 ransom was paid, but the boy's body was found May 12. Bruno Hauptmann was arrested for the crime Sept .19, 1932. He was electrocuted in 1936.

In 1954 five congressmen were wounded as three Puerto Rican nationalists fired wildly from the gallery of the House of Representatives.

A thought for the day: Henry David Thoreau said, "It is a characteristic of wisdom not to do desperate things."

TIME AND TIDE

Department of Commerce, United States Coast Geodetic Survey. Times and heights of tides at San Francisco (Golden Gate):

Making Three No-Trump Of This Proves The Player Is True Champ

The annual contest for the Harold S. Vanderbilt Cup, which begins in 10 days, calls to mind some of the best hands of the 1967 championship. The hand shown today proves that there's more than one way of killing a cat, which should interest cats as well as bridge players.

DIAMOND FINESSE

Ron Von der Porten, well-known San Francisco expert, won the first trick with the ace of diamonds and led a low club to try a finesse with dummy's ten. East won with the jack of clubs and returned a spade.

South played the nine, and West's ten forced out dummy's king. Delcarer returned a low club from dummy and naturally played the queen from his hand, not daring to take a deep finesse with the eight.

ABANDON CLUBS

West discarded a diamond, and South had to abandon the clubs since he couldn't afford to lose three clubs and two aces. Von der Porten led a heart to dummy's king, losing to the ace. Back came another spade, and West took the ace and continuted with a spade to the queen.

NEEDS HEARTS

Now declarer needed two heart tricks for his contract. He took all of the diamonds, discarding the last club from his hand, and tried a finesse with the ten of hearts.

UNLUCKY HAND

This lost also because it was a very unlucky hand, but now West had to lead from the 9-6 of hearts to declarer's Q-8. So Von der Porten got his two heart tricks after all, and a national championship as well.

I hope all you cats reading this will do as well 10 days from now.

DAILY QUESTION

Partner opens with one heart, and the next player passes.

You hold:

♠ 8 5 4 3 2
♥ A 5 2
♣ A J 9 4.

What do you say?

ANSWER: Bid one spade.

The hand is too strong for a raise to two hearts, but unsuited to a jump to three hearts. Bid a side suit, such as it is, and await developments.

Germans Test Pills Against Radiation

DUSSELDORF, Germany (GF) — Pills affording protection against radiation have successfully undergone initial testing in plants and animals, a west German scientist with the country's nuclear research center has reported.

Rats, mice and plants divided into test and control groups, the former receiving the pills, were given equal amounts of radiation, but only those which had taken the medicament had a high survival rate, said Professor Franz Schwanitz, who developed the pills.

INCOME TAX FACTS

Expenses Of Your Education May Be Listed As Deductions

Wikel

Expenses for education are deductible if you qualify.

The regulations apply to self-employed persons as well as to teachers and other employees.

Expenses for education may be deducted if primarily for:

1. Maintaining or improving skills required in your employment or other trade or business, or

2. Meeting the express requirements of your employer, or the requirements of applicable law or regulations imposed as a condition to the retention of your salary, status or employment.

Expenses incurred for obtaining a new position, meeting minimum requirements, a substantial advancement in position, or for personal purposes are not deductible.

Where or how do you deduct these expenses on form 1040?

If you are an outside salesman, all your educational expenses are deductible in part III, page 2, line 3, and if you are not an outside salesman, your travel expenses while away from home overnight are deductible in part III, page 2, line 3, while all other educational expenses are deducted in part IV, page 2, line 16, Miscellaneous Deductions.

Be sure to complete Schedule D of form 2106.

If you are self-employed your educationl expenses are deducted on Schedule C, together with your other business expenses.

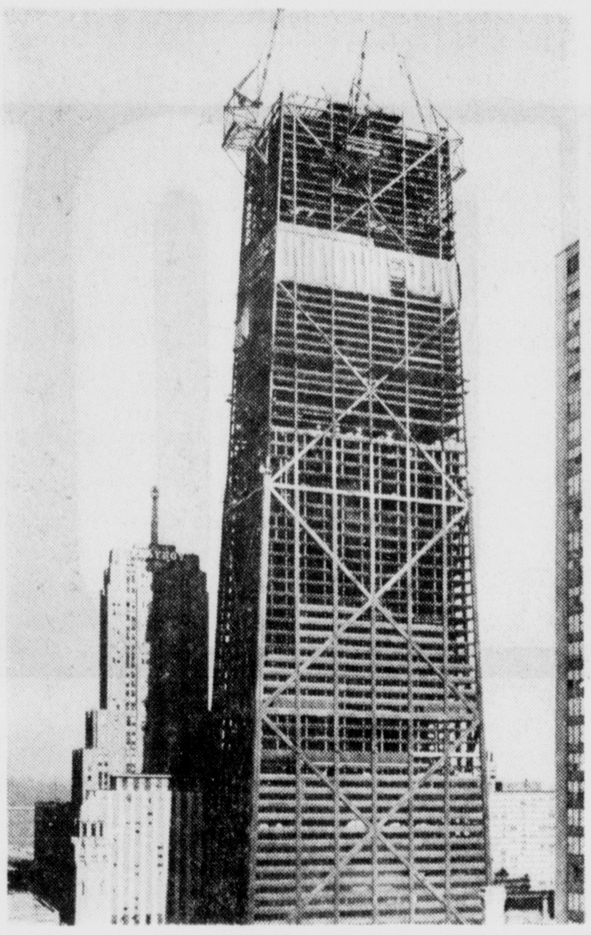
There have been some new regulations in 1967. If a course leads to a degree this will not, of itself, bar a deduction for the expense.

Also, a change of position or a promotion within the same occupation will not bar the deduction.

Educational expenses are still a controversial area and there are many conflicting decisions.

You should secure a copy of "Your Federal Income Tax 1968 Edition for Individuals" from your office of the Internal Revenue Service (cost 50 cents). This will give you the Internal Revenue Service position.

If you do not agree with the IRS position, consult your attorney or accountant. There may be some decisions that may be more favorable to you.



SECOND TALLEST BUILDING GOING UP

The John Hancock Center, Chicago, will be exceeded in height only by the Empire State Building in New York when it reaches its full 100 stories late this year. In this recent photo, tapering framework had been erected to the 76-story level. The building will have 825,000 square feet devoted to offices on its lower floors and 705 apartments in its upper stories.

Bertoni Home

Peter J. Bertoni, president of Cal-Marin Title Co., returned yesterday to his home at 768 Penny Royal Lane, San Rafael, after being released from Ross Genral Hospital, where he underwent major surgery for ulcers. He expects to spend another month recuperating at home before returning to his office at 1331 Fourth Street, San Rafael.

Gold Issues Strong, But Market Lower

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market closed lower again today in moderate trading. Gold mining issues were strong.

Selective strength in blue chips helped support the averages. Glamor stocks took further losses on long term profit taking.

Among gold mining stocks, Campbell Red Lake, McIntyre Porcupine, Homestake and American-South African were strong.

Montgomery Ward and American Smelting were among blue chip gainers.

Actively traded, Control Data, Republic Corp., Seeburg and Ogden Corp. dropped a couple of points each. Itek lost half a dozen points and Scientific Data 3.

Down around a point were such stocks as Uniroyal, Sperry Rand, Litton Industries and High Voltage Engineering.

Xerox lost 4 and IBM 3.

Prices fell on the American Stock Exchange.

SUCCESSFUL INVESTING

Quickly Doubled Profits Cannot Be Counted On

ROGER E. SPEAR

Q. My husband and I are in our early 30s with three small children. We have two mutual funds, Oppenheimer and Fundemental Investors. We are adding to these for our children's education. We have $4,000 in the bank, half of which we would like to invest with the hope of doubling our money in a year or two to make a down payment on a house. What is your advice? — G.A.

A. I advise you most sincerely to abandon the idea of putting money into stocks to try to double it in a year or two. We have had a big rise in share prices since October, 1966, and prospects for doubling your money in a short time—always a dubious procedure—are at present downright unlikely.

Some very good stocks — including Holiday Inns and Walgreen — have more than doubled over the past 12 months, but further gains from present high levels seem likely to slow down.

If you require your money in a year or two, leave it in the bank where it will be safe from any decline.

If you want to invest on a five-year basis and are willing to ride through any decline during that period, I believe that the two stocks mentioned above have excellent growth possibilities and might help you to reach your goal — but not in one or two years, in my opinion.

Q. We own Wellington Fund, Dreyfus Fund and Television & Electronics. Our agent suggests that for a fee of $5 we should transfer our holdings of Wellington into either Windsor or Ivest. — I.S.

A. My answer must depend upon your objective and your circumstances. Wellington is a balanced fund which is good but rather conservative from a growth standpoint. Windsor is good but has had a rather moderate performance record. If you want a fast-action stock and are willing to accept the risks involved in this type of security, I suggest Ivest which has compiled an impressive record.

RCA Tallies Records In Earnings, Profits

Record sales and earnings in 1967 have been reported by Radio Corp. of America, setting new highs for the sixth consecutive year.

Profits after taxes were $147.5, a rise of 2 per cent over 1966. Sales topped $3 billion and increased 5 per cent over the previous year's total. Earnings per common share at $2.27 compared with $2.26 in 1966 when fewer shares were outstanding.

The fourth quarter of 1967 was the best single profit quarter in RCA's history, reaching $51.5 million or 80 cents per common share, as compared with 77 cents per share for the final quarter of 1966.

INTERNATIONAL TELEPHONE AND TELEGRAPH CORP. has completed its acquisition of Sheraton Corp. of America, which will be operated as a wholly-owned subsidiary. Sheraton operates 165 hotels and motor inns totaling 49,277 guest rooms in 12 countries.

WORLD AIRWAYS, INC., Oakland, which operates charter flights throughout the world, gained 62 per cent in commercial revenues for 1967 over the previous year. Net income rose to $14.46 million from $9.38 million in 1966. Total revenues were $70 million in 1967, compared with $50 million in 1966. Per share earnings were up from 94 cents to $1.45 after adjustment for the two-for-one stock split last July.

WILSON PHARMACEUTICAL AND CHEMICAL CORP. directors have authorized a stock split, with shareholders receiving an additional share of common stock for each share now held. It is subject to authorization by shareholders at their annual meeting April 23. The company is a subsidiary of Ling-Temco-Vought, Inc.

LUCKY STORES, INC. directors have increased the cash dividend to 30 cents from 22.5 cents per share on common stock outstanding, payable March 28 to shareholders of record March 7.

THE SINGER CO., New York has acquired the business and assets of Corry Jamestown Corp., a leading manufacturer and distributor of steel office furniture. Corry sales in 1967 were approximately $15 million.

PROEN PRODUCTS CO., Berkeley manufacturer of precision watering devices, applicators, plant feeders and plant food chemicals, has been acquired by Germain's Inc., a pioneer Los Angeles horticultural and agricultural firm. The Proen lines will continue to be manufactured in Berkeley and marketed through distributors.

SYSTRON-DONNER CORP., Concord, has reported sales of $11.69 million for the six months ended Jan. 31, up 67 per cent from the year-earlier volume. Net earnings totaled $635,000 equal to 71 cents per share, compared with 54 cents a year ago. The company manufactures electronic measuring instruments, sensing devices and components for aerospace and commercial use.

OCCIDENTAL PETROLEUM CORP. directors have declared the first quarterly dividend on the company's $4 convertible preferred stock, payable April 1. The dividend is payable to former stockholders of Island Creek Coal Co. at 69.23 cents per share. Subsequent dividends will be payable at the annual rate of $4 per share. Island Creek Coal was merged into Occidental in January.

NEW JERSEY SCENE—State police and National Guard units use a car for protection during last July's bitter racial riot in Newark, N.J., one of several major ones studied by a special presidential panel.

Riots Cure May Cost More Than U.S. Efforts In Vietnam War

months investigating riots in Newark, Detroit and 21 other cities. It concluded: "The urban disorders of the summer of 1967 were not caused by, nor were they the consequence of, any organized plan or conspiracy."

But militant organizations and individual agitators, it added, "helped to create an atmosphere that contributed to the outbreak of disorder." And it warned "that the continuation of disorders and the polarization of the races would provide fertile ground for organized exploitation in the future."

Time and again, the report hammered away at the growing division in America.

"Segregation and poverty have created in the racial ghetto a destructive environment totally unknown to most white Americans," it said. "What white Americans have never fully understood—but what the Negro can never forget—is that white society, is deeply implicated in the ghetto. White institutions created it, white institutions maintain it, and white society condones it."

And the panel went beyond proposing aid only for Negroes in the slums. Now is the time, it said, "to make good the promises of American democracy to all citizens—urban and rural, white and black, Spanish-surname, American Indian, and every minority group."

Among the commission's proposed remedies:

Tax incentives and other subsidies for industries that locate in poverty areas, both urban and rural, and which give on-the-job training to hard-core unemployed.

Requires the federal government to pay 90 per cent of total welfare costs, eliminate residence requirements for welfare payments, lift the current freeze on aid to dependent children, and knock out the controversial "man in the house" rule designed to curb illegitimate births among mothers on welfare.

Enactment of a federal open-housing law covering sale or rental of all housing—including single-family homes—and the placement of more low-income housing outside slum areas.

The commission reported little has been done since last summer to remove riot causes. "In several cities," it said, "the principal official response has been to train and equip the police with more sophisticated weapons."

"... The commission condemns moves to equip police departments with mass destruction weapons, such as automatic rifles, machine guns and tanks. Weapons which are designed to destroy, not to control, have no place in densely populated urban communities."

More Negro policemen should be recruited, it said. And it proposed that slum youngsters aged 17 and 21 be hired by cities as "community service officers" with the federal government paying 90 per cent of their salaries.

This would help ease "the abrasive relationship between police and the ghetto community" which the commission described as "a major—and explosive—source of grievance, tension and disorder."

The presidential panel criticized certain news media, saying they exaggerated both the mood and the events in the riots and had routinely failed to report on slum conditions.

The commission said the Black Power separitist movement is playing into the hands of white racists.

The report was signed unanimously although the commission conceded "some differences remain" among its members:

Gov. Otto Kerner of Illinois, chairman; Mayor John V. Lindsay of New York, vice chairman; Sen. Fred R. Harris, D-Okla; Sen Edward W. Brooke, R-Mass.; Rep. James C. Corman, D-Calif.; Rep. William M. McCulloch, R-Ohio; Charles B. Thornton, board chairman, Litton Industries Inc.; Roy Wilkins, executive director, National Association for the Advancement of Colored People; I. W. Abel, president, United Steelworkers Union; Katherine G. Peden, former Kentucky commerce commissioner; and Police Chief Herbert Jenkins of Atlanta.

In concluding the report, the commission said "we have uncovered no startling truths, no unique insights, no simple solutions. The destruction and the bitterness of racial disorder, the harsh polemics of black revolt and white repression have been seen and heard before in this country.

Fear, Mistrust Helped Kindle Major Rioting

WASHINGTON (UPI)—During the first nine agonizing months of 1967, America's cities suffered 164 racial disorders of varying intensity.

In all the major riots, the causes, and the effects, at least the immediate ones, were much the same—mistrust, fear, rumor, ignorance and death.

MINOR CLASHES

The sparks igniting most of the riots came from relatively minor clashes between police and someone in the ghetto.

But the spark, innocent in itself, touched off smouldering resentments of much more dangerous dimensions. In Detroit, it was the busting of an after-hours "blind pig." In Newark, it was started with a generally orderly march on a police station.

But disturbances spread like fire into riots.

In Detroit, the commission said "...a spirit of carefree nihilism was taking hold. To riot and destroy appeared more and more to become ends in themselves... (by) late Sunday afternoon it appeared to one observer that the young people were 'dancing amidst the flames.'"

FANNED BY FEAR

The flames were fanned by fear and, in many cases, sheer stupidity.

In Newark, Police Director Dominick Spina received a report of snipers in a housing project. When he arrived, he saw about 100 National Guardsmen and police crouching behind vehicles, hiding in corners and lying on the ground around the edge of the courtyard.

It was broad daylight. Everything was quiet. Spina walked unarmed down the middle of the street, then he heard a shot. "All around him the troopers jumped, believing themselves to be under sniper fire."

It had been a young, nervous Guardsman who "had fired to scare a man away from a window," which were his orders.

NOT SNIPERS

A short time later, more "gunshots" echoed through the complex. They turned out to be firecrackers hurled from windows, but:

"By this time, four truckloads of National Guardsmen had arrived and troopers and policemen were again crouched everywhere looking for a sniper. The director of police remained at the scene for three hours, and the only shot fired was the one by the guardsman.

"Nevertheless, at 6 o'clock that evening, two columns of National Guardsmen and state troopers were directing mass fire at the Hayes Housing project in response to what they believed were snipers."

In Detroit, a private guard, Julius L. Dorsey, 55, a Negro, panicked at demands by three other Negroes that they be permitted to loot the market he guarded and fired three shots into the air.

The police radio reported: "Looters, they have rifles." A patrol car driven by a police officer and carrying three National Guardsmen arrived. As the looters fled, they opened fire.

One person was slain: Julius L. Dorsey.

In its report to the President, the antiriot commission said, "The 'typical' riot did not take place. The disorders of 1967 were unusual, irregular, complex and unpredictable social processes. Like most human events, they did not unfold in an orderly sequence."

State Guard Units Reported Ready For Any Quick Duty

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — California's National Guard units now can be mobilized quickly to deal with riots, according to the state's adjutant general.

Maj. Gen. Glenn C. Ames tld a news conference yesterday the high level of preparedness of the National Guard and Air National Guard are partially due to the war in Vietnam.

"There is no difficulty in recognizing that conditions in Vietnam are critical," Ames said. "Mobilization could occur any day."

Ames noted that unrest during the last two summers has prompted Gov. Ronald Reagan to form a special committee which meets weekly to discuss problems of riot control. The adjutant general said he has nine men working full time on emergency plans for the guard should a riot situation develop.

"I can have a liaison man in an area as soon as a police chief gets a little nervous," Ames said. "That means there will be less reaction time in any emergency."

Ames said proclamations are all made out ready for the governor to sign, along with regulations prohibiting sales of guns or cans of gasoline.

He said an airlift plan has been devised to pick up guardsmen on summer training duty at the time of an emergency, and rush them to any riot scene.

About half of the guard's 23,000 men and the Air National Guard's 5,000 men are stationed in southern California.

Woman Wounded By Sniper Fire

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Mrs. Kathy Anderson, 19, was wounded twice last night when a sniper fired nine random shots at window shoppers along a 60-foot stretch of Market Street. Her wounds were not serious.

The shots were fired from a 9 milimeter pistol, according to police, as the sniper drove down the street in a red car.

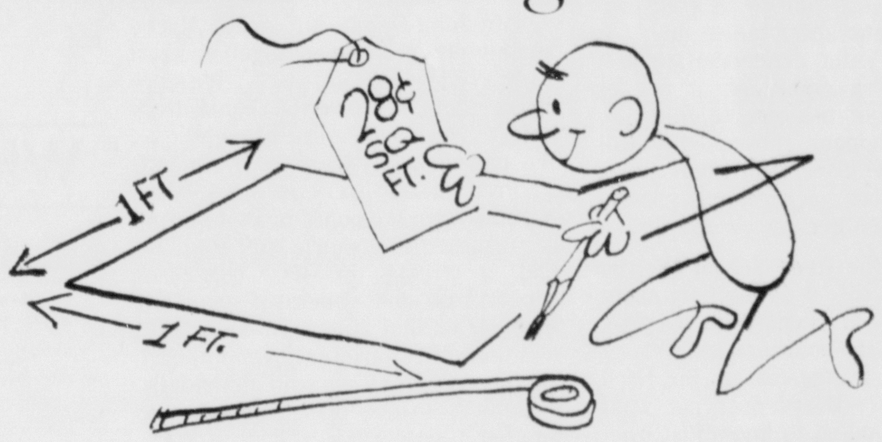
for "do-it-yourself" office designers



The Kaehler-Farrar Building rents space for as little as 28c a square foot. Sounds unbelievable. But it's true.

This is the cost for four finished walls, an acoustic ceiling with complete lighting and a vinyl tile floor. You erect your own interior partitions, buy your own rug and do your own painting.

We've set this rate because some people would rather do this work, themselves — besides they may know a little old rug maker that will give them a price, be a better carpenter than our pros, and have a supressed desire to paint murals on their office walls.

However, our craftsmen are still available for tailor-made office designing . . . our many services are yours for the asking — for many prefer to have us do-it-ourselves. We do a great job.

Why not look into our multi-plans that give you the office you want — budgeted the way you want it.

Mercury's got it.

Cougar.
The hot Cougar leads the pack when it comes to luxury sports cars. Just look at these extra features that you don't pay extra for: deep-cushioned bucket seats, rich vinyl interior, hideaway headlamps, walnut-toned steering wheel.

Montego.
Or if you want a family-sized car with plenty of excitement there's Montego, Mercury's newest—with all the fine car touches you'd expect. One thing unexpected: Montego's low price. It's more car for less money. All this goes to prove that Mercury's really got it for '68.

Why Does Reed Board Court False Suspicion?

The Marin County Housing Authority has decided to abandon the Hilarita Housing Project and dispose of the land, which was purchased with taxpayers' dollars.

The Reed School District would like to buy three acres of it, with other taxpayers' dollars.

There would appear to be no problem here. The housing authority has the land appraised and fixes the price it would like to get. The school district has it appraised and offers the price it feels it should pay. (The appraisals, of course, never agree.)

If the two boards cannot get together on price, the school district may file what is known as a lis pendens. This constitutes notice that it is prepared to enter condemnation proceedings. More important, it freezes the value as of the date of filing, so that what happens subsequently will not inflate the price. And when the lis pendens is filed, each party is permitted to see the other party's appraisal.

SO FAR, the Reed School District has not done this. It is thinking about it, according to Richard V. Godino, assistant county counsel.

For some strange reason, the Reed School District Board does not want anyone but Godino to know just what it is thinking, especially in terms of taxpayers' dollars it might spend for the land. At the close of its regular meeting about midnight Tuesday, the board went into closed session to talk about the purchase.

Godino says that was all right. There are a couple of state laws that say school boards cannot meet behind closed doors except for specific purposes. Discussion of how many taxpayers' dollars they may spend for something is not one of those purposes. But Godino says it was all right because the board is thinking about condemnation proceedings and therefore there is "pending litigation" and an "attorney-client relationship" exists which calls for secrecy.

This seems to us a very strange interpretation of the law. But then, the whole procedure seems a little strange.

A FAMOUS CHARACTER in American history, William Marcy Tweed, once described how his "ring" rigged purchases by the County of New York to line its members' pockets. These are Tweed's words, in testimony before an investigating committee from the New York Board of Aldermen after his downfall:

"Mr. John Briggs, Mr. Walter Roche and myself used to meet together nearly every day, at my office. . . . We were all members of the various committees before which bills were brought. . . . We passed bills excessive in amount. . . . Pretty nearly every person who had business with the board of supervisors, or furnished the county with supplies, had a friend in the board of supervisors, and generally some one member of that ring. . . . The result was their bills were sent in and passed, and percentages were paid on the bills, sometimes to one man, sometimes to another."

What the Tweed ring members did has been done many times, before and since. It is to try to prevent such things that there are laws against closed meetings.

NOW, WE WOULD NOT for one moment suggest that the members of the Reed School District Board are up to anything unsavory.

But why do they go out of their way to make it appear they might be?

And why does the county counsel assist them in creating such an impression?

Talk Of Vietnam Coalition Ignores Role Of Thieu Regime

SAIGON — Despite Hanoi's violent escalation of the war, we should not rule out the possibility that North Vietnam may soon be interested in serious peace talks.

Since the Viet Cong may feel they have strengthened their position significantly by the recent offensive, Hanoi might well conclude that now is the time to go after what they want by negotiation.

If this be true, then we had better steel ourselves for what lies ahead.

SO FAR NEARLY all of the dialogue by which the North Vietnamese have carried on their non-peace offensive has been between Hanoi and Washington — as if the views of the government of South Vietnam didn't count.

They do and there is no better moment than right now to recognize that Saigon's concept of an acceptable peace is not what Senators Eugene McCarthy and Robert Kennedy or Gov. George Romney or Prof. Kenneth Galbraith are talking about.

Far from it — and with good reason.

Neither President Thieu nor the South Vietnamese parliament nor the South Vietnamese people want to see this war go on even one second longer than necessary. They are willing to negotiate but they know very well what Hanoi has in mind to accomplish through the device of negotiation, and they do not want any part of it.

They know that the Hanoi Communists want to get a stranglehold on South Vietnam by negotiating themselves into the center of the government, and they do not intend to let that happen. They are fighting to preserve a free and independent South Vietnam and they intend to negotiate to preserve a free and independent South Vietnam — and nothing less.

With this concept as their guide, what do the South Vietnamese offer as their premises for negotiating?

THESE ARE the premises: They do not propose to recognize the National Liberation Front (the political arm of the Viet Cong) as separate from and independent of Hanoi. Why? Because it is dependent on Hanoi and no one who knows the facts says otherwise.

They do not propose to accept a "coalition" which would mean taking the Viet Cong into the government of South Vietnam. Why? Because they know that such a "coalition" would have only one purpose — a complete Communist takeover.

The South Vietnamese are not interested in neutrality or neutralism. They have no wish to have "neutralism" imposed upon them by others who seem to think it is a building block for peace. It isn't. It's sand. Why? Because it doesn't work. Neutrality didn't keep India from being invaded by Red China nor did it keep Tibet from being taken over by Red China. And it doen't keep Laos and Cambodia from being used as a military highway by the North Vietnamese. And, whether at peace or at war, the Viet Cong would have no intention of allowing it to work here.

THE THIEU government has good reason to resist totally any attempt to draw it into the mesh of a coalition with the National Liberation Front. As revealed in captured documents and defector interviews, the Viet Cong have told their cadres exactly what they are after. It's this:

"Our objective is a coalition government with the key role for the NLF.

"A coalition government will be advantageous to our revolutionary goals.

"To all appearances it will be a coalition government, but the real power will lie in our hands, and we will follow the front's political program."

Saigon knows what happened to Czechoslovakia, whose popular elected democratic government had its lifeblood drained by coalition with a Communist minority. It was taken over by force. This is why the South Vietnamese say: No coalition government here.

Bar Over-Reaches To Curb Press

(Reprinted from Akron Beacon-Journal)

The long smouldering feud between press and bar on pretrial publicity is flaming into an open conflict of constitutional rights.

By an overwhelming vote, the House of Delegates of the American Bar Association has adopted the Reardon report on "Fair Trial and Free Press" which seeks to shackle the press in the performance of its rightful responsibilities.

The Reardon report contains new rules for lawyers and new procedures for judges designed to restrict the release of crime news to the press.

Beyond this, the American Bar Association is recommending restraints upon the police and granting of power to the judiciary to bring contempt charges against newspapermen in specific cases during trial.

IF LAW enforcement authorities can be brought to book by the use of contempt power, their zeal for the war on crime can only be diminished.

And, in turn, the press must not be hampered in its surveillance of the police, district attorneys and the minority of judges who dispense "easy" justice. . . .

The press must be free to investigate and expose, to audit government at all levels.

AS FEDERAL Judge George C. Edwards of the U.S. Sixth District Court of Appeals has said: "I believe the American Bar Association in its enthusiasm to curb excesses of press freedom has far overstepped the bounds of good reason."

And former Supreme Court Justice Tom Clark states: "We do not have to jeopardize freedom of the press. The press has made sure our democracy has worked as it should."

Moreover, the American Bar Association tends to ignore the many cases in which newspaper investigations have freed men unjustly convicted of crimes which they did not commit.

THE A.B.A.'S adoption of the Reardon report has now been remanded to each of the 50 states where it can be implemented by state and local bar associations.

One hesitates to predict the degree of disparity between these organizations in their endeavors either to comply with or ignore the recommendations contained in the Reardon report.

It is fair to assume that their decisions will lack uniformity and therefore the rules of justice may not be evenly applied throughout the nation.

NEITHER the parent body nor any other bar association can legislate these dictums. They have no authority to create law. . . .

Self-respecting editors will continue to welcome cooperative efforts to insure that even-handed justice be done.

They will not, however, submit to edicts and promulgations of the bar which deny them the right to find the truth and print it.

Pine Blight Discovered Here

A fungus disease of pine needles, which spreads easily and kills young trees, has been found recently in the forests of north coastal California, according to the U. S. Forest Service.

The red band needle blight was discovered in Tanganyika only 10 years ago. Since then it has damaged forests in Chile, England and New Zealand.

Evidently the spores of the disease are carried by the high altitude winds around the earth. Trouble in tiny packets!

Work Instead Of Fines Proposed For Errant Juvenile Drivers

By HENRY C. MacARTHUR

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — A new concept of dealing with the reckless driving habits of minors is contained in Assemble Bill 697, by Assembly Bill 697, by Assemblyman Ray Johnson, R-Chico.

Briefly, the measure provides that juveniles be permitted to "work out" traffic fines, rather than paying the fine, at the discretion of judges, referees, or traffic hearing officers.

"Many of our young people," Johnson said, "have plenty of money to spend, and receive no lasting impression when fined for a traffic offense.

"Perhaps a period of work would be far more impressive than someone paying the fine for the offender, and then forgetting the whole matter."

UNDER PRESENT law, judges may take several courses in dealing with traffic violating minors. These are:

1. Reprimand the minor and take no further action.

2. Direct the probation officer to file a petition to declare the minor a ward of the juvenile court.

3. Suspend or restrict driving privileges for a period not to exceed 90 days.

5. Require the minor to pay a fine of not more than $50.

6. Require the probation officer to undertake a program of supervision of the minor for not exceeding six months.

"It seems," the assemblyman said, "that we should try to impress on your young people that safe driving is a way of life, and reckless driving is the way of death."

UNDER THE BILL, the minor would work for a public agency, and receive $10 per day for the work performed. The $10 would be applied to satisfy the fine imposed by the court.

It has been noticed during the past few years that the driving habits of younger people have improved to some degree, possibly as the result of driver education in the schools, driving schools themselves, and the safety conferences that are held annually to bring home the necessity for safe driving to young persons as well as adults.

However, many young persons regard an automobile as a toy rather than as a means of transportation, and a vehicle for "showing off" rather than as a means of traveling from one point to another. And probably no matter how good the instruction, or how much advice is given by parents, schools and older friends, there will continue to be young people who need something more emphatic to bring home the realization that when one tampers with safety, one endangers life.

Whether a period of hard work will accomplish the goal or not remains to be seen, but as least, Johnson's idea is a step in the right direction.

WHAT OUR READERS SAY

Reardon Rules 'Not Censorship'

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Monday's editorial about pretrail publicity contained many inaccuracies and some silly conclusions. The ABA rules are aimed not at censorship, but at curbing the efforts of those overzealous prosecutors and policemen who would try the suspect in the newspapers rather than in the courtroom.

Saturday's I-J story of the drug arrests is a convenient example. Many prospective jurors will make up their minds about the guilt or innocence of those arrested long before getting into the courtroom and hearing any evidence. If the newpapers are proposing to set themselves up as both judge and jury of all persons arrested, the courts would seem to be useless and could be abolished.

Why do the newspapers feel threatened by the proposals? Do they think they can't sell papers unless the front pages are filled with murder, robbery and rape? How sad, when so many more significant and newsworthy events are occuring daily. Rather than hysterically scream "the dark corners of the legal profession be probed," perhaps editors and publishers should ask themselves just what will do and won't do to sell newspapers.

Lastly, the ABA rules are merely recommendations. Not all lawyers agree on the proposals and doubtlessly not all will follow them. MANY ATTORNEYS DON'T EVEN BELONG TO THE ABA. The ABA has no power to disbar California attorneys or prosecutors who fail to follow the recommendations, and has no power over law enforcement officers. If binding rules are laid down, it will be by the courts or by the elected representatives of the people, not by the ABA.

(Editor's note: Neither the incidence of murder, robbery and rape nor the amount of public interest in news of crime, will be the least bit affected by adoption of the Reardon rules or whether they are implemented by the courts.)

Reader Believes She Finds Prejudice

Editor, Independent-Journal:

As I read through various papers since the strike, the I-J mostly, I have noticed articles I feel add a note of prejudice.

There are always stories of crime, robbery, killing, etc., and it seems to me that if the person involved is Negro the papers always let you know it, but if the man is white, only his name.

Why is it so important to say he's Negro? This has nothing to do with the crime committed.

I feel this is an injustice and should be changed.

TRY AND STOP ME

By BENNETT CERF

IT IS THE CONTENTION of Frank Sullivan — and who would be so bold as to dspute Frank Sullivan? —that when he was a callow youth in Saratoga, a reference he encountered in a textbook suggested that he look for amplification under Louis XIV. "I followed the suggestion religiously," avers Sullivan, "and there was Louis XIV asking indignantly, 'What are you looking under me for?' "

ONE OF New York's "beautiful people" moved her belongings into a grandiose triplex apartment that rented for about $3,000 a month, then invited a few chums to come over to "ooh" and "ahh" with envy. Arithmetic, Thieu Record Show Vietnam Weakness

By PHIL NEWSOM
UPI Foreign News Analyst

Despite the shock wave touched off by the Communist offensive against South Vietnamese cities, it is probable that the American people may still not realize the enormity of the task ahead.

Here are some unpleasant statistics:

American officers in Saigon now estimate Communist forces in South Vietnam at 333,000 as compared with the 242,000 cited by Gen. William C. Westmoreland during his visit to Washington in late 1967.

Despite continuous U.S. bombing of North Vietnam supply lines and the Ho Chi Minh Trail, Communist tanks are operating for the first time outside Saigon.

Even the most optimistic Allied estimate admits it will take months to restore the shattered pacification program.

The Communist offensive further exposed weaknesses of the Saigon government, which has made many promises of reform but carried few of them out.

Despite warnings from the U.S. Military Assistance Command, the offensive against the cities caught President Nguyen Van Thieu at his home in the Delta observing the Vietnamese New Year.

Last August, during the election campaign, Thieu and Premier Nguyen Cao Ky promised to increase South Vietnam's armed strength by 65,000 men. By the first of February 1968, few, if any visible steps had been taken.

In October and early November, Thieu and Ky talked of an "action" program to include land reform, reorganization of education, relief for two million war refugees (to which perhaps another half million have been added), reduction in the government budget and eradication of corruption.

The latter included purchase by provincial chiefs of their jobs for a reported $30,000 and by district chiefs for $5,000.

This week the government finally was reported to have replaced the commanders of II Corps in the highlands and IV Corps in the Delta in the first feeble steps.

The government further has demonstrated the uncertainty of its position with the arrest of labor and religious leaders and opposition politicians. A fear of a rise in neutralist agitation appeared to be one of the reasons.

In guerrilla warfare, it has been assumed that 10 government soldiers were required to deal with one guerrilla. Even if the mobility of the helicopter reduces that ratio to five-to-one, simple arithmetic places the number needed for Allied victory at 1,500,000 men.

The present total of all Allied forces is roughtly 1,165,000, or 335,000 short.

Mill Valley Clock Ticks Again, And No Outside Expert Needed

The continuing drama of Mill Valley's town clock is ended. The four-faced timepiece on Lytton Square is running again as of Tuesday afternoon, after being stilled since early December.

And who fixed it? The watchmaker city hall first contacted about it when it stopped, Ellis Bell of the Clock Shop. Mr. Bell has been involved for quite awhile in making a new part to replace whatever was busted.

Somehow city hall hadn't got the word about his efforts, and surprise was universal when Mr. Bell went out Tuesday, set up his platform, installed the new part, and set the clock ticking again.

Mill Valley's commuters can leave their watches home and relax a little more now as they wait for the 7:15 or whatever.

FAMILIES WHO are patriotically refraining from overseas travel this year (we haven't met any but there must be some) can get a substitute whiff of internationalsim this month at Tamalpais High School's third annual Tamalpais Buffet and Bash.

The event includes a potluck dinner with some exotic dishes expected, and entertainment by teachers, American and foreign students at Tam. The buffet and bash will start at 7 p.m. March 30 at Ruby Scott auditorium at Tam

MONDAY'S LITTLE dustup over Mill Valley school officials joining the Peace and Freedom party probably obscured a more meaningful difference of opinion in the district — grades and report cards.

Among changes in the district's five-year plan is a move toward more ungraded classes and no report cards to parents.

Mrs. Nan Hepp, in her newsletter for Parents Association for Neighborhood Schools, has taken a poll and run several parents' comments, a majority unfavorable to the no-card system.

At Monday's school board meeting, Supt. James A. Collins explained his opinions: "Grades tend to control curriculum, make grade seekers of the bright, and unfairly punish some students who may be in the wrong program," according to a report of Monday's meeting from the district office.

For the parent to keep track of his child's progress, Colin said, more teacher-parent conferences would be held. Parents would be told where their children stood in relation to national and state averages, and be shown the children's work and results of diagnositc tests.

Whatever the merits of ungraded classes, they probably won't answer responses like one cited in the Mrs. Hepp's newsletter: "Our child wants to have a report card, to see how she is doing in her classes. . . . Children seem to take criticism from others more seriously than from their parents."

Mrs. Hepp pointed out that no progress is made without experiment, and urged parents to wait until June to judge the new reporting methods.

ART BUCHWALD

Want Nice Captured Document? Very Good English! Real Cheap!

WASHINGTON — As everyone is aware, the best source of information concerning how things are going in Vietnam is captured enemy documents. If it weren't for these captured documents, our political and military leaders would certainly not be so optimistic about the war as they seem to be right now.

By chance I came across an enemy document myself the other day, and it was a windfall because it described how the North Vietnamese were managing to get their captured enemy documents into the hands of the South Vietnamese and Americans.

IT SEEMS THAT Hanoi has turned over the responsibility of manufacturing and documents to the 101st Captured Enemy Document Brigade. The headquarters of the 101st CED Brigade is located five stories underground somewhere near the Chinese border. There, under the supervision of the notorious Col Vinh Su, a Soviet-built mimeograph machine turns out an average of 10,000 enemy documents a day.

Because of wartime conditions these captured documents are printed on a heavy low-grade paper which is one of the main reasons American intelligence believes that Hanoi is ready to throw in the towel. No country can survive long if it has to print its orders on low-grade paper.

But the paper has a twofold purpose. After the documents are printed they are issued to North Vietnamese and Viet Cong soldiers as part of their uniform. The captured enemy documents are used as insulation for the wet-weather jackets, as well as for stuffing into sandals when the cheap North Vietnamese leather gives out.

IT IS FOR THIS insulation that North Vietnamese soldiers and Viet Cong are so anxious to carry captured enemy documents on themselves. The documents are also used as handkerchiefs and for starting fires, though Gen. Vo Nguyen Giap, in a recently captured enemy document, warned his troops that burining a document that could eventually fall into the hands of the Americans was a court-martial offense.

Although all Viet Cong forces are issued captured enemy documents, the 101st CED Brigade is solely charged with carrying the highly classified ones which eventually will get to the Pentagon and then be given to pro-administration columnists.

The members of the 101st are given extensive training. They are then sent out on patrol with the captured documents hidden in their knapsacks. As soon as they see a South Vietnamese or American unit they throw up their hands and surrender. While being searched they babble that they were all innocently duped by the Communists.

NEEDLESS TO SAY, there is a big turnover in the 101st Brigade, particularly when its main mission is to be captured. But the supplying of captured enemy documents to Saigon has highest priority for Hanoi, and the demand for them has increased with each new escalation.

As a matter of fact there is now a black market in captured enemy documents and many South Vietnamese have decided to manufacture them to sell to the various American intelligence agencies.

These captured documents are printed on better paper, and are easier to study since they weren't carried down from the North. Also some enterprising forgers are printing them in English to make them easier for the Americans to read. This has naturally angered the North Vietnamese, who have declared that unless the illicit traffic in captured enemy documents ceases, they will not come to the conference table.

"It's our biggest export item," Colonel Su told a visiting French newspaperman, "and now they even want to take that away from us."

Executive Reshuffle Turned Down

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — The state's Little Hoover Commission has refused to approve Gov. Ronald Reagan's executive reorganization plan.

The 13-member commission yesterday rejected a motion to approve the plan and agreed, instead, to have commission chairman D. W. Holmes send Reagan a letter informing him of the action.

Holmes and Clifford Duke were the only commissioners to vote in favor of the reorganization proposal which has been submitted to the legislature. Much of the reorganization already has been put into effect by Reagan.

The commission also turned down a subcommittee report saying there were "no objections" to the governor's plan to reorganize his branch of government.

Three commission members, Assemblyman Jack Fenton, D-Montebello, Sen. Milton Marks, R-San Francisco, and Manning J. Post of Los Angeles, said they would remove their names from the report if it was approved.

The subcommittee report said the plan had been tested in use, does not add to the cost of government and "most importantly, it is the organizational structure which the governor believes will permit the most efficient and effective operation of the executive branch. . ."

Fenton and Marks said the commission should offer suggestions for improvement and not just approve or disapprove the plan.

Both houses of the Legislature must either approve or reject the plan but cannot amend it.

Fair Board Eyes Culture Swap Plans

The Fair/Marin board of directors is considering sponsoring demonstration projects in which one cultural or recreational group can entertain another group and thus bring closer understanding between various organizations in the county.

Such programs would be sponsored under the title, "Showcase-Marin." The proposed project will be among topics for a general membership meeting of Fair/Marin in the board of supervisors' chambers at the Civic Center at 8 p.m. Monday.

Fred F. Enemark, chairman of the board of directors, announced that E. T. Ryken, representing the senior citizens coordinating council, will make a report on Showcase-Marin.

Chairman Enemark will give a progress report on some of the problems faced by the board of directors in working out a contract with the county.

Reagan Reacts With Figures To College Fund Criticism

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Gov. Ronald Reagan reacted today to criticism of his higher education budget proposal by releasing figures showing spending increases that "are truly substantial, indeed."

It was the latest sharp reaction by the governor to those at the University of California and state colleges who complain the proposed budget for the year starting July 1 is inadequate.

"Those who have been vehemently flailing at the alleged lack of concern for higher education in California are simply ignoring the facts," Reagan declared.

He said he calls for $184 more for each student at the university than budgeted for the current year, and $116 more for each state college student than is allocated this year.

Air was first liquified in 1895.

Music Teachers To Hear Guest

Jock Budelman, director of the Seattle Opera Company's childrens chorus, will be guest speaker at a meeting of the Marin County Music Teachers Association March 8 at 6:30 p.m. in the Blue Rock Inn, Larkspur.

The meeting coincides with the county's elementary school honor music festival at which Budelman will be guest conductor of the honor chorus.

Officers will also be elected at the meeting. Reservations are in the charge of Warren Binzley of the Marin County schools office.

Music and champagne in the Hearst Court of the deYoung Museum at 6 p.m. on March 12 will lure Marinites to the city for the third annual concert of the San Domenico Singers.

Mrs. George Goddard, an alumna of Dominican Convent, now San Domenico, is chairman of the planning committee, assisted by Mrs. Robert Lashly.

Attending with parties of friends will be Mesdames George T. Cameron of Burlingame, G. G. Benoist, Philip McCoy, Thomas Stanton, John F. Carney, Edwin B. Cahill, Oliver Olson Jr. and Charles Farnow, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. O'Reilly III, Mr. and Mrs. Henry B. Grandin, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Madden Jr., Mr. and Mrs. George W. Cumming and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Galbraith.

The occasion is especially arranged for an audience of parents, friends and alumnae of the San Domenico School in Sleepy Hollow, and is the high-point in the musical year for the chorus of young singers, trained and directed by Maestro Vincenzo Giannini.

Among those off to dinner following the musicale will be Mr. and Mrs. Frank Abbott of Kentfield and Mr. and Mrs. John O'Neill of Ross, to the St Francis Yacht Club; Mr. and Mrs. Richard Dinkelspiel of Ross and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur W. Relfe of Kentfield. Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Clute, with their daughter, Mrs. Marvin Stoh, plan to dine later on the Peninsula.

One of the special occasion parties is that of Mr. and Mrs. Gregory Solon of Ross, who will join friends after the concert in the city to celebrate their 20th wedding anniversary and Mr. Solon's birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Sonnenberg of Ross with Karin Sonnenberg's grandparents, Dr. and Mrs. Arthur Sonnenberg of San Francisco, will make up a foursome for dinner; Mrs. George Hall will entertain four friends at dinner after the concert; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Brown of Ross and daughter, Marita, an alumna of San Domenico and one of the original Singers who now attends the University of San Francisco, will have dinner at the Press Club.

Since the San Domenico Singers were first organized three years ago and trained by Maestro Giannini, chorus master of the San Francisco Opera, they have given many private, public and television performances and have made two recordings.

The March 12 program will include professional artists Marian Marsh, soprano, and the San Domenico Quartet-in-Residence comprised of Frances Shorr, violin; Lucien Mitchell, viola; Jean Mitchell, cello and Faith France, piano. All are on the music faculty of the school and are well known professional performers.

ANNUAL REUNION of the Santa Catalina School for Girls Alumnae will be held tomorrow with a number of Marinites in attendance. The luncheon and afternoon meeting at the school in Monterey, will be followed by a dinner dance at the Beach Club in Pebble Beach. Mrs. John Rende of Greenbrae is reservations chairman. Others planning to go to the Monterey Peninsula for the event are Messrs. and Mesdames Hank Sanderson and Anthony Fisher of San Rafael, Bruno Franchetti of Mill Valley, and Dr. and Mrs. John Jansheski of Tiburon.

THE SONS and daughters of Mr. and Mrs. William Packard Dunn of Tamalpais Valley honored their parents at a dinner in celebration of their 25th wedding anniversary. Attending were their son, Stephen, their daughters, Haroldine and Virginia, Mrs. Dunn's father, Captain K. V. Anderson; and her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley H. Anderson and Tommy, all of Mill Valley. Their eldest son, Gary, is serving aboard the aircraft carrier USS Coral Sea, off the coast of Vietnam.

Susan Maclise Wed In Ross Home Rite

Susan Elizabeth Maclise became the bride of Norman Atherton Freeman at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln Gay Maclise in Ross on Saturday afternoon.

A reception followed the ceremony at the bride's parents home. After a Carmel wedding trip the Freemans will live in Kentfield.

Susan is a Redwood High School graduate and attended University of Puget Sound. She will receive a degree from College of Marin in June. She is the sister of Lincoln and Douglas Maclise of Ross.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mel Freeman of Ross are parents of the bridegroom. Norman also was graduated from Redwood High School and attended San Francisco State College. He is now attending College of Marin and is employed with Pedley-Knowles in San Francisco. Mr. and Mrs. Eric L. Pedley of Ross are his grandparents. Norman is the brother of Eric P. Freeman, C. Macondray Freeman and Faxon D. Freeman.

TRADITIONAL RECIPES

Negro History Week Features Foods

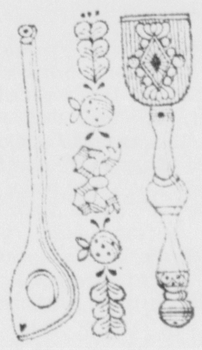
Marin women are playing an important part in the celebration of Negro History Week at the Co-Op of Marin in Corte Madera this week.

Of special interest are the demonstrations of how to prepare "Soul-Food" going on between the hours of 11 a.m. and 4 p.m. They started yesterday and will continue tomorrow.

"Soul-Food" is the kind of cuisine that was originally the basic cooking of Negro women in the rural South. Ingredients were the products of small farms and the surrounding countryside. Principal elements included pork in all its forms and parts, fresh, smoked and barbecued; chickens; greens and fruits like dandelion, poke, wild muscadine, paw paws and berries; and fish from local streams.

Corn was a staple, fresh and meals used in cornbread, corn pone, johnny cake, ash cake, dumplings — some of the forms dictated by lack of an oven.

Changes and additions came about with sea food supplements and through urban influences and foreign cultures, such as the French in New Orleans.



Mrs. S. I. Hayakawa of Mill Valley, a member of the Co-Op board, arranged for the cooking demonstrations together with Mrs. Mitchell Howard and Miss Daisy Rosebrough of Marin City. More recipes are available than those given below.

Historical exhibits and a display of current books are another feature of the celebration as well as an exhibit of photographs and art. Mrs. John Ihle and Mrs. Robert Pitts of Mill Valley worked with Mark Wittenberg on these exhibits.

YAM PIE, CORN BREAD dressing and collard greens with okra were the "soul-food" recipes demonstrated yesterday at the Co-op of Marin as a special feature of Negro History Week. Right, a shopper, Mrs. Paul Paik of Larkspur, is served some of the dressing by Mrs. E. P. Freeman of Marin City as Miss Daisy Rosebourgh explains how she prepared the collard greens.

CRAB GUMBO
(from Mrs. H. C. Dedrick
Marin City)

½ lb. raw shelled shrimp
1 small pkg. (3 oz.) dried shrimp
2 pkgs. frozen okra
1 large onion
¼ cup shortening
Salt and pepper
2 tablespoons flour
1 tablespoon gumbo file powder

Cut up okra while still frozen. Also cut up large onion. Mix together. Add salt and pepper. Have frying pan ready with shortening; when fat is quite hot, pour in okra and onion mixture; fry until okra is firm (do not have heat so low it will stew). Then pour in large can of tomatoes. Cook together for twenty minutes. Have large pot ready with 2½ quarts of water, pour in okra and tomato mixture. When it starts to boil, put in crab, shrimps, and dried shrimps. Let simmer together about 30 minutes. Brown 2 tablespoons flour, stir in some of the liquid until it thickens, add to the mixture. Add the gumbo file powder and let simmer for 20 minutes. Remove from heat and serve.

SWEET POTATO PIE
(from Mrs. Lanny Berry Lucas Valley)

5 medium sweet potatoes
¾ cube (6 tablespoons) butter or margarine
4 eggs
1½ cup evaporated milk
1½ cup sugar
½ tsp. nutmeg
1 9 inch unbaked pie shell

Peel sweet potatoes and boil until soft. Mash and then beat with electric beater. Add butter, eggs, evaporated milk, sugar, and nutmeg. Beat together. Pour into unbaked pie crust. Bake in 350 degree oven for 45 minutes to 1 hour until center is done.

CORN BREAD
(from Mrs. E. P. Freeman
Marin City)

1 cup corn meal, yellow or white
2 heaping tablespoons flour
½ teaspoon salt
2 teaspoons baking powder
1 teaspoon sugar
¾ cup milk
2 eggs
1 tablespoon shortening

Mix corn meal, flour, salt, baking powder and sugar. Add milk and egg. Beat until well mixed. Add melted shortening. Bake in 400 degree oven for about thirty minutes (more or less depending on whether you use sheet pan, muffin or cornstick pan.)

CORNBREAD DRESSING
(from Mrs. E. P. Freeman
Marin City)

2-lbs. chicken giblets
1 bunch onions
1 cup celery
1 cup green pepper
Lawrey seasoned salt
MSG
Garlic powder or fresh minced garlic
Salt and pepper to taste
3 eggs
1 stick (¼ lb.) butter or margarine

Boil giblets until done in 3 cups water to which part of the seasoning has been added. Reserve water. Chop onions, celery and peppers, place in frying pan and saute with part of butter until tender. Chop giblets in small pieces. Crumble up the cornbread from above recipe in a large bowl. Add all seasonings and vegetables to cornbread. Add eggs. Mix well. Melt rest of butter in frying pan, add broth to giblets, mix and add to cornbread mixture. Place in a casserole dish in 450 degree oven for 45 minutes, or steam in a covered pot over low heat on top of stove, stirring occasionally.

YAM CUSTARD PIE
(from Miss Daisy Rosebourgh Mill Valley)

½ cup sugar
1 teaspoon cinnamon
½ teaspoon salt
3 eggs well beaten
2 cups mashed and strained yams
2 tablespoons melted butter or margarine
1 cup milk
juice of 1½ lemons
1 9-inch unbaked pastry shell

Add sugar, spices and salt to well beaten eggs, stir in melted butter, milk, lemon juice, and mix thoroughly with yams. Pour into unbaked pastry shell and bake in 400 degree oven for 15 minutes. Reduce heat to 375 degrees and bake 30 minutes longer.

LEMON PIE WITH LEMON CRUST
(from Mrs. Ollis Thompson Tamalpais Valley)

Pie Crust
2 cups flour
1 teaspoon salt
1 scant cup shortening
1 egg
Juice of 1 lemon

Sift flour and salt. Add shortening and cut into flour. Beat egg. Add juice of lemon. This will moisten it all it needs. Be sure it is well chilled before rolling. Bake in a preheated 400 degree oven for 12 minutes or until lightly browned.

Filling
4 egg yolks
4 tablespoons lemon juice
½ cup sugar
4 egg whites
¼ cup sugar

Combine the first three in-

A 'FIRST' FOR FIRST LADY

A Rudi Gernreich creation is modeled at the first fashion show held in the White House, hostessed by Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson yesterday for wives of the 43 governors, who are holding their annual mid-year conference in the Capital. Lynda Bird Robb, the President's daughter, is on the right in the front row. Seated at her table is the Los Angeles designer Rudi Gernreich, and behind his right shoulder is Mrs. Hubert Humphrey. Mrs. Johnson is seated under the portrait in front of the fireplace. The model wears a linear-patterned black and white overblouse over a witty skirt. The blouse tunic is blue and white and the pants red and white.

HELEN HELP US!

By HELEN BOTTEL

Marriage Is For Duds Who Can Not Make It On Open Market

DEAR HELEN:

The more I see of marital troubles, the more sure I am that woo leads to woe when it is legalized. Why bother?

Marriage is for duds who can't make it on the open market. I am happy to say I have no problem here. I change girls every month. There's a surplus now that females are out to prove themselves equal to males.

You probably won't agree that living free is the only way to fly. But, for the record, I want to say I'm still sowing my wild oats at 34 with no regrets, and when I retire at 65, I'll start threshing them! — CONVINCED BACHELOR

DEAR CON:

Here's to a sow-sow life, chum, until your threshing machine breaks down. — H.

DEAR HELEN:

My sister works for a publishing company. She gets home around 5:30 p.m. She has made arrangements with her best friend to come earlier in the afternoon to walk the dog and start dinner.

My brother-in-law arrives home around 4:30, which gives the two an hour for hanky-panky. I know that woman is playing house, not keeping it.

Please tell me how to handle this terrible situation. My sister is a lovely, competent, brilliant girl who shouldn't be hurt. — UPSET

DEAR UPSET:

Perhaps your sister has more faith in her looks and competence and best friend than you have.

Surely a brilliant girl could sense when something cooks besides dinner. But if you are convinced she needs help, then drop in on the two unexpectedly several times next week. That should cool them. — H.

DEAR HELEN:

I was interested in your letter from the founder of Smoking Opponents Society.

Here in Chester County, Pa., we organized (in 1966) the Non-Smokers Club of America, sponsored by our County Tuberculosis and Health Association. Its only objective is to keep school students from starting to smoke, for here is where the habit most often starts.

Our three-point program, spearheaded by the students themselves, includes monthly activities in 22 schools much publicity via newspaper, radio, television, speeches and psychology. Our first smoking survey showed that 80 per cent of all young people in organized school activities do not smoke, and 90 per cent of school award winners are non-smokers, a clear indication that most achievers don't consider cigarettes necessary.

The Chester County project, we believe, is the largest student non-smoking project in the United States. It includes about 15,000 secondary school and 2,500 elementary school pupils. If our yearly surveys show a continuing decrease in teen-age smoking, as the second already has, we will feel amply repaid for our efforts. — HERB GRIGSON, PROJECT DIRECTOR.

NOTE TO READERS: If you are interested in forming a Student Non-Smokers Club in your area, send a long, 12 cent stamped, self addresssed envelope to W. Herbert Grigson, Chester County Tuberculosis and Health Association, 24 E. Market St., West Chester, Pa., 19380. He will send you a history and outline of the organization, and a description of its program. — H.

Labeling Terms

Understanding of labeling terms used on bedding and towels can lead to wise selection. Purchases should not be based on price alone, but on fiber content, thread count, type of fabric, size and special finishes.

Medical Knowledge Aids Patient, Doctors Say

NEW YORK (WMNS) — Physicians appear to agree that the more a patient knows about medicine, the more cooperative he will be about treatment.

In reply to the query in a medical journal, 'Is Today's Informed Patient Easier to Treat?' one physician replied, "I have observed that patients tend to question certain therapeutic procedures. I think this is a healthy attitude. It does take more of the physician's time to explain his diagnostic and therapeutic ideas, but I believe that more confidence in the doctor-patient relationship is established.

If the patient and his family have a better understanding of disease and treatment they will be more cooperative and have more confidence in the measures carried out in their behalf.

Another physician pointed out that increased awareness of medicine has taught patients to expect more from their physicians. He observed, "Better informed patients are easier to care for. They want better care and they are aware of the standard of care being given. Because the layman is learning more about medicine, he literally forces the physician not only to increase his own knowledge but also use greater finesse in his approach to patients."

A third doctor said the intelligent patient will be more cooperative if he understands the whys and wherefores, but the aggressive or fearful patient will benefit little from the new medical information.

MR. AND MRS. MARTIN P. GOLDSBROUGH

Goldsbroughs Take Trip To Lake Tahoe

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Patrick Goldsbrough were married Feb. 17 at Blessed Sacrament Church. The new Mrs. Goldsbrough is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George T. Lawrence of San Rafael. She is the former Denise Honey Lawrence.

Tanya Wegner was maid of honor, and the bride's sister, Celeste, was a bridesmaid. Best man was Dan Allwardt of Eureka, and Alan Lundmark and Dennis Cooney of San Rafael ushered.

Martin is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Rex C. Goldsbrough of San Rafael. He is a graduate of Terra Linda High School and attends College of Marin.

To Banish The Spare Tire

Lie on back, left leg raised, and right leg at full stretch just off the floor. Stretch arms overhead and, keeping the raised leg vertical, swing up to grasp the ankle. Keeping the leg vertical, roll slowly back to rest on the floor. Repeat four times and then change legs to do four more. These comprise a set. Add a set a week till you can do four.

Note: If you cannot swing up all in one movement at first, simply grasp your leg at the thigh and walk your hands up to the ankle, hand over hand.

NEW WAY TO BE SUDDENLY SLIM

San Francisco: — Are you a woman whose figure is on the good side but might look perfect? You'll be thrilled by the new easy way science has discovered for you to become Suddenly Slim and yet completely comfortable. If you're more than 15 pounds overweight, or your waistline is larger than 32 inches, then this idea is not for you. If your weight problem falls within this range, then you can realize a new, smoother figure today, without diet or exercise.

Suddenly Slim is an all-new kind of 4-oz. girdle constructed of science fibers. One startling innovation is the sheer nylon front panel. This is permanently stiffened by a science process and cannot give or sag. It's surrounded by a slimming action border. A featherstitched panel down each side of this girdle will contour your hips if they are a problem.

The girdle itself is of a "wonder" Lycra spandex blend. It's a new power net consisting of nylon, acetate and spandex. It is so comfortable, but has such slimming strength, it gives your figure everything that's possible with a foundation.

"Suddenly Slim," in both girdle and panty versions, is the peak achievement of the California designer-genius, Olga. They are available at The Emporium Bras and Girdles: All seven Big E's.

FEATURED THIS SATURDAY

More and more westerners are discovering the ancient eastern philosophy and practices of yoga. Marin is no exception. Scores of Marinites have taken up yoga. And one of the persons most responsible for this interest is Jan Kohloff, a young guru or teacher of yoga. Marin Magazine editor Don Keown writes about Jan Kohloff and her yoga instruction in tomorrow's I-J weekend supplement.

Ida Geary, nature enthusiast and writer, takes Marin Magazine readers on another outing in their own county tomorrow. This time the place is a familiar one—Muir Woods National Monument. But she suggests that you visit the big trees at a different time of the year than does the usual visitor. And she also has a couple of suggestions for different routes for your visit.

It's Cookie Time In Marin–So Expect A Girl Scout At The Door

We looked up from the desk the other day to find young Debra Farani of Troop 2009 in San Rafael here to remind us that the Girl Scout cookie sale is starting today, and that the 13 girls of her troop will join with all the other Girl Scouts of Marin to peddle boxes of cookies around the county until March 16.

The cookie sales augment the United Bay Area Crusade funds that go for costs of the San Francisco Bay Girl Scout Council, which includes all the Bay Area Girl Scouts. The sale funds also help the girls realize their service projects, such as packing school kits for Navajo children, buying books for school libraries, running a summer play-school and fun events for the troops, such as ski trips or parties for a sister troop.

Five different kinds of cookies will be available, announces the Marin County chairman of the cookie sale, Mrs. Alex Kazakoff of Corte Madera.

IN RECOGNITION of Nursery Education Week the Sausalito Nursery School will hold open house Monday and Wednesday from 9 a.m. to 11:45 a.m. and from 12:30 p.m. to 3:15 p.m. School will be in session during these hours so that visitors will have an opportunity to see the cooperative school in action.

At its Feb. 6 meeting the Sausalito City Council unanimously adopted a resolution naming the week of March 3 Nursery Education Week. As a part of the resolution all members of the community were invited to gain knowledge of nursery education through visits to local schools.

The school is located at 615 Main St. Refreshments will be served. Further information may be obtained by calling the nursery school.

THE REV. Gordon L. Foster will speak at Wednesday's Mill Valley Community Church Club luncheon meeting. It will begin at noon in the parish hall.

Luncheon chairman Mrs. Donald Fleenor will be assisted by Mesdames Harold Huycke, Victor Rowe, Gordon Guest, John Burnham and Miss Lois Walker.

SISTER MARY Carlos, B.V.M., principal of St. Vincent's High School of Petaluma and Robert Martin, coach of the parochial high school, will be guest speakers at Our Lady of Loretto's Parent-Teacher Guild meeting at 8 p.m. Tuesday at the parish hall in Novato.

The academic structure of St. Vincent's High School will be the topic of Sister Carlos, and Martin will discuss the school's athletic program.

The guild will also discuss plans for the March 31 spaghetti dinner and the election of a nominating committee for new officers.

ELECTION OF their first slate of officers and plans for a spring series of luncheons will be the main order of business when the Pathfinders Section of Marin Art and Garden Center meets Wednesday.

Meeting time is 10:30 a.m. at the Octagon House at the center in Ross, locale of the Monday luncheons open to the public, which Pathfinders are conducting as their benefit activity.

Acting president Mrs. Arthur Gustafson, says, "We need members interested in this new tea-room operation. Newcomers are invited to attend this meeting."

THE NINE candidates for the Novato City Council will be speakers at the Novato Federated Women's Club meeting to be held from 10:30 a.m. to noon in the Novato Community House on Thursday.

A five to seven minute presentation by each candidate has been requested by the program chairman, Mrs. John Machado, with a question and answer period to follow.

Mrs. Karl Schwede, acting chairman for the March meeting, has sent out more than 50 invitations to clubs in the North Marin area requesting the presidents or their representatives to be guests of the club for the public program.

THE AMERICAN Baptist Women of the First Baptist Church of San Anselmo, will present a family night dinner next Friday. Each circle will prepare food native to the missionary areas they are studying, such as Oriental (Okinawa), Spanish (Brazil and Haiti) and Iranian. A festive atmosphere will prevail with hostesses dressed in native costumes. All the family are invited to the dinner which will commence at 6:30 p.m.

"EVERY YEAR many children spend time in detention in Juvenile Hall simply because no other suitable shelter is available," Mel Augustine told the board of directors of the Marin County Juvenile Court Auxiliary. Mr. Augustine and Walter Busher met with the Auxiliary to bring its leaders up to date on problems the Probation Department faces in dealing with the troubled children of the county.

In response to the need for more foster homes for teen-age children, the auxiliary board undertook a campaign to use posters, speakers bureau and telephone referral services to bring this question to the public. Mesdames Benjamin Dreyfus, chairman, James Adams, Margaret Hedden, Charles Rosenbaum, Robert Walker and Samuel Young were appointed to work out plans with Mr. Augustine. The plans and a film about foster homes will be presented at the general membership meeting of the Juvenile Court Auxiliary on March 20.

Poultry Freezing

If you buy fresh whole poultry displayed in light plastic or cut-up birds in tray packs, do not freeze the birds in these wrappings. Packaging materials should keep out air and moisture. Aluminum foil (heavy weight), laminated freezer papers, and freezer bags are suitable packaging materials. It is best to wrap and freeze giblets separately. But freeze them with the birds if it is not to be used within three months.

Leslie Works, Pat Wheary Are Married

Lt. (j.g.) and Mrs. E. Patrick Wheary were married Feb. 22 at Our Lady of Fatima Church in Lakewood, Colo.

Patrick is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene C. Wheary of San Francisco. He is a graduate of Redwood High School and the University of Colorado.

Leslie's attendants were Bernice Allen, maid of honor, and Mrs. Charles Closson, bridesmaid. Best man was James Wheary of San Francisco. Denis Wheary of San Francisco, Terry Smail of Boulder, Colo., and Kenith Eldred of Menlo Park ushered.

gredients and cook over low heat, stirring constantly, until thickened to the consistency of jelly. Remove from heat and cool.

Beat the egg whites until very dry and stiff. Fold in the ¼ cup sugar. Then very slowly and gently, a tablespoon at a time, fold in the lemon jelly. Pour the mixture into the baked pie shell. Top with the following meringue and bake in a 325 degree oven. In about 15 minutes the meringue will be delicately browned.

Meringue

2 egg whites
1 tablespoon sugar

Correct Ingredients For Pound Cake

What goes into a $25,000 cake? Wednesday's recipe of the Pillsbury Bake-Off winner, Buttercream Pound Cake, should have read:

BUTTERCREAM POUND CAKE

1 package buttercream lemon frosting mix
2 cups butter, softened
6 eggs
4 cups all purpose flour (not self rising)
2 teaspoons baking powder
1 can (12 oz.) poppy seed cake and pastry filling
Confectioners' sugar or glaze

In large mixer bowl, cream dry frosting mix and butter at medium speed, until light and fluffy, about 5 minutes. Add eggs, one at a time, beating well after each. Gradually beat in flour and baking powder. In small mixer bowl, combine 3 cups batter with poppy seed filling; blend well. Spread half of plain batter over bottom of greased 10 inch tube pan. Then alternately add spoons of poppy seed batter and remaining plain batter.

Bake at 325 degrees for 1 hour and 30 minutes to 1 hour and 45 minutes. Cool cake in pan 15 minutes before removing. Cool completely. Sprinkle with confectioners' sugar or drizzle with glaze.

Glaze: Combine 1 cup confectioners' sugar with 2 tablespoons milk or lemon juice.

Nuts For Baking

Peanuts can be bought in quantity and stored for holiday baking. Use them to flavor cookies, candies, desserts or toppings. The University of Nebraska Extension Service food specialists suggest that if stored in a freezer, the peanuts will keep up to years, in-the-shell, up to nine months. And for shelled nuts, storage is up to three months.

MARIN FILM FARE

Ski Slopes To Surf Thrills In Larkspur

By LES DARD

MOTOR MOVIES

The story revolves around a professor of a university, who resigns in protest when two students are expelled. He goes with them to the hippie scene.

LARK THEATER

"Ski on The Wild Side" is a sports documentary in which the world's best skiers demonstrate their skills on five continents. It's a round-the-world survey that starts in California then moves to Colorado, Wyoming and Vermont and across the Atlantic to France, Switzerland, Russia, Yugoslavia, New Zealand and Japan.

Co-featured is last year's sports gem, "The Endless Summer," story of two California surfers who travel the world in search of the perfect wave.

FAIRFAX THEATER

"The President's Analyst," starring James Coburn is about a psychiatrist who agrees to treat the man with the biggest headache of them all.

TAMALPAIS THEATER

Boasting 10 Oscar nominations, "Bonnie and Clyde" happily holds forth here, tells the bizarre story of the Depression-era rampage of the Barrows gang and the romance of Clyde Barrow and Bonnie Parker. Title roles are played by Warren Beatty and Faye Dunaway.

Co-featured is "The Naked Runner," with Frank Sinatra.

101 DRIVE-IN

"Cool Hand Luke," with Paul Newman, is about a reckless young war hero who makes a mistake and lands in jail.

RAFAEL THEATER

The story is that of Anthony J. Drexel Biddle, but clearly the script writers have taken great liberties.

NORTHGATE THEATER

"The Graduate" continues to play before packed audiences.

SEQUOIA THEATER

"Georgy Girl" with Lynn Redgrave, James Mason and Alan Bates in the story of a not-so-pretty but loving and generous girl who gets too much of the bitter and not enough of the better in life.

"To Sir With Love" stars Sidney Poitier as a teacher in a London slum school.

NOVATO THEATER

TIBURON PLAYHOUSE

Bus Fare Hike May Up Traffic

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Higher commuter fares would bring more traffic into the Bay Area, increasing auto congestion, says State Public Utilities Commission counsel Vincent V. MacKenzie.

Greyhound is seeking hikes of 45 to 50 per cent.

SERVING ALL OF MARIN COUNTY

AWAY FROM THE CROWDED COURTROOMS

A Marin Superior Court jury trial, crowded out of the county courthouse, adjourned to the San Rafael city council chambers yesterday afternoon. Sitting in the council chair is Municipal Court Judge Peter Allen Smith (left), sitting as a Superior Court judge for a civil trial. The jury occupies the right front two rows of spectator seats. Also in a council chair is Kirby Ashburn, northwest regional director for the Mutual Readers League. William Kennebec, who used to sell magazines for the league, claims the league blackballed him out of his job. The league has filed a cross-complaint, saying Kennebec still owes them money on loans they granted him.

Beach Study Stations Set For Bolinas

The Bolinas Harbor District will operate three study stations for the Army Corps of Engineers as part of a nationwide study of beach and wave activity, the district board agreed last night.

One station is already set up in Stinson Beach State Park. The others will be set up at the end of the Stinson Beach Sandspit and at the end of Brighton Avenue in Bolinas. They will produce data on wave directions and heights, take sand samples, and measure changes in beach cross-sections.

The program will be funded with federal money, and the stations will be monitored by the harbor district and the Bolinas Rod and Boat Club.

The district board also agreed to apply for inclusion in another federal program which would install a wave gauge in deep water offshore, producing data on wave movements.

The aim of both programs is to learn the sand movements at the Bolinas Channel mouth, so sand erosion or accretion can be predicted for the area.

In a follow-up to Wednesday's capsizing of a small boat in the Bolinas Channel, the board agreed to take steps to improve navigational marking of the channel, and to hold discussions with the Coast Guard on how to improve safety in the local waters.

The Bolinas Harbor District Board also:

SAND STUDIES — Learned that the U.S. Geological Survey will start a series of sand tracer studies this month, using fluorescent dyes to trace movement of sand in surf and deep water areas and at the lagoon's fresh water sources.

BOTTOM SURVEYS — Agreed to ask for proposals at the March 28 meeting for a series of bottom surveys of Bolinas Bay to give further information on sand movement. The University of California plans a survey of the bay's bottom geology.

EROSION — Agreed to make a full report as soon as possible to Rep. Don E. Clausen, R-First District, on erosion of the Bolinas Headlands, so the information will be available for hearings by the House Appropriations Committee. The Public Works Committee has approved $110,000 for an erosion study but it could be several years before the appropriations committee funds the study. The cliff is eroding at an average of two feet a year, consultant Norman T. Gilroy said.

TIDELANDS — Agreed to a 60-day extension of the planned purchase of approximately 15 acres of the Francisco tidelands at the west side of the lagoon, to allow time for approval of surveys and completion of escrow and title procedures. Price will depend on the exact acreage resulting from the surveys.

$95,000 Collected In Epilepsy Suit

I-J Special Report

SAN FRANCISCO — Three Mill Valley residents today received an out-ot-court settlement of $95,000 resulting from a 1963 traffic accident involving an epileptic driver.

Mrs. Florida Even and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph J. Coscia, had charged two San Francisco doctors with negligence and "careless violation of the state Health and Safety Code."

They said Drs. Knox H. Finley and Lionel A. Pereya had failed to report to health authorities the epileptic condition of the late Melvin E. Walton, 37, Sausalito School District janitor.

Suits totaling $400,000 were filed against the doctors in San Francisco Superior Court.

Mrs. Even's husband, Louis Even, was killed. She and the Coscias were injured in a Thanksgiving Day collision on the Golden Gate Bridge in 1963.

In her original suit Mrs. Even asked $250,000 for her husband's death and her own injuries. She received $58,000. Mr. and Mrs. Coscia sued for $150,000 and received $37,000.

Walton, charged with felony manslaughter, fell to his death from a San Francisco building in 1965.

The health and safety code requires doctors to report epileptic patients to health authorities who must notify the state Department of Motor Vehicles.

Verne Orr, motor vehicles department director, said he knew of no similar case.

"This certainly will bring out strongly to the doctors that they can't just be good fellows," he said. "It is far more urgent that they report the patient's condition."

Orr added that the law applies not only to epilepsy but to other types of blackouts such as those caused by diabetes.

Teen Charged On Marijuana

Wade George Gibson, 18, of San Francisco, was charged posessing marijuana and attempted car theft in Marin Municipal Court yesterday after his arrest by Sausalito police.

Officers said they saw him early yesterday, sitting in a car in the municipal parking lot. When he saw them, he got out and ran, officers said.

64th Arrest In Narcotics Probe Is Made

The number of those arrested as a result of a four-month undercover narcotics investigation in Marin rose to 64 yesterday with the arrest of Francis Mitchell Orella, 24, of 61 Washington Park Road, Mill Valley.

Orella, arrested by Mill Valley police, is charged in a grand jury indictment with selling about $60 worth of marijuana and conspiracy to sell marijuana. His bail is set at $6,250.

Most of those arrested in the weekend narcotics raids are being processed in Municipal Court.

The raids netted a total of 56 adults and eight juveniles, with most accused of selling marijuana or dangerous drugs. Thirteen of those arrested were released without charge, pending further investigation by the district attorney's office.

Haley Holds Press Free To Talk To Anyone About Ackley Slaying

Judge Harold J. Haley of Marin Superior Court said today he had not barred anyone from talking to the press about the case of two men accused of murdering a Santa Venetia couple in their house trailer Jan. 12.

Attorneys for Kenneth Allen Preston and Johnny Lee Sommerhalder, members of a Santa Rosa motorcycle gang, would have to formally show such an order was necessary before he would make it, said the judge.

Sommerhalder and Preston are accused of the shooting, stabbing strangulation and rape murders of Curtis O. Ackley, 27, and his wife, Shirley, 34, owners of a San Rafael barber and beauty shop.

At the time of their preliminary hearing in Marin Municipal Court, Judge Alvin H. Goldstein ordered that witnesses, defense attorneys and members of the district attorney's office and sheriff's office not discuss the case with the press.

Citing a Supreme Court ruling on the widely publicized murder trial of Dr. Sam Sheppard, the judge ordered them not to discuss any testimony given at the preliminary hearing.

His broad order barred all from indicating any belief in the guilt or innocence of the two men or making any statement about the merits of the case. It banned all discussion of the background of the defendants or evidence against them.

Yesterday, Judge Goldstein asserted that his order was no longer in effect, because he has no jurisdiction now that the case is in Superior Court.

With Judge Haley's statement today, there are no restrictions except those on the district attorney and defense attorney, barring them from allowing the press to copy from the preliminary hearing transcript.

Kettenhofen Claims Tax Freeze First

Supervisor Ernest N. Ketzenhofen said today he suggested a freeze on the Marin County tax rate two weeks ago.

Yesterday, Supervisor Thomas T. Storer proposed a tax rate freeze for the 1968-69 fiscal year at $2.30 per $100 of assessed valuation.

Kettenhofen, chairman of the board of supervisors, said he sent a memorandum to his colleagues two weeks ago urging that "we endorse the philosophy of freezing the tax rate and budget." The current fiscal budget totals $28.6 million.

Kettenhofen said he did not make his memorandum public because he wanted the supervisors to discuss his proposal first.

"I note that Mr. Storer has seen fit to councur with my suggestion, together with a request that it be pt onthe (Tuesday) agenda for public discussion," Kettenhofen said. "It is very easy for all of us to make categorical statements about what we individually can do to help the tax rate, but I urge instead that we work as a group . . to accomplish a freeze or reduction of the tax rate instead of just talking about it."

Two More Runaway Boys Found; Burglary Suspects

Two more runaway boys were picked up by sheriff's deputies in Tiburon yesterday and cited to Juvenile Hall on suspicion of burglary, possession of marijuana and running away from home.

Following an incident on Feb. 20 in which two Tiburon boys, one 12 and one 13 years old, were caught in a borrowed boat on Richardson Bay by Lt. William Johansen, the boys left home and joined forces with another runaway, a 13-year-old boy from Bel Aire, deputies said.

The two boys admitted burgalizing two homes in the Reedlands area last weekend, at No. 1 Burrell Court and on Reed Ranch Road, deputies reported. Some knives, an old pistol, food and cigarette lighters other small items were taken.

Johansen said today the boys stayed in the storage shed of an apartment on Pelican Hill until a maintenance man locked them out. They then took blankets from their homes and stayed out in the hills until Wednesday when the 12-year-old turned himself in to his parents and was taken to Juvenile Hall by deputies. Yesterday, deputies found the other boys in the Bel Aire home of the 13-year-old.

What appeared to be marijuana leaves and seeds were found among their possessions and one boy admitted smoking marijuana for three years, Johansen said. The boy is already on probation from Juvenile Hall as a runaway and burglary suspect, according to

Four Seasons Theme For Floral Show

Floral arrangements depicting the four seasons will be displayed at a flower show on the theme "Calendar of Beauty" by the Peacock Gap Garden Club from 3-7 p.m. March 21 at the Peacock Gap Country Club.

The show, open to the public, also will have an educational display on conservation by the Boyd Natural Science Museum.

Jail Term In Burglary Case

Raymond W. Lucero, 19, of Albany, was sentenced to six months in county jail by Marin Superior Court Judge Harold J. Haley yesterday for burgling the home of Virginia Mann at 224 Glen Drive, Sausalito, last March 29.

Lucero, placed on probation for three years, pleaded guilty to the theft of a movie projector, radio, tape recorder and $40 cash.

Judge Haley said Lucero should be brought to court again May 27 to see if his sentence should be shortened.

Chairman Of Kuchel Marin Team Named

David Winslow, of Tiburon, has been named Marin County chairman of the Citizens Committee to Re-Elect Sen. Tom Kuchel.

Winslow, of 3900 Paradise Drive, is a former chairman of the Marin County Republican Central Committee and presently is a member of the committee. His appointment was announced by the Kuchel committee's headquarters in San Francisco.

He also was county co-chairman of the Nixon for Governor Committee and county chairman of the 1963 campaign by Rep. Don H. Clausen, R-First District.

Winslow, 50, is vice president of the board of Marin County Day School in Corte Madera. He has lived in Marin for 19 years, and is a manufacturers representative in San Francisco.

Mental Center Officers Named

Theodore C. Lachelt of San Anselmo has been named president of the Ross Psychiatric Day Center board.

Lloyd Tunik of San Rafael was named vice president, Mrs. Ralph Potter, Kentfield, secretary, and Leonard Shaw, Corte Madera, treasurer.

Bret Harte Drain Work To Begin

Preliminary work will begin Monday on the next phase of the Bret Harte flood control project although the major excavation is not expected to start until after the season's rains.

Norris Rawles, San Rafael public works director, said today the preliminary work on Irwin Street will not interrupt traffic although one side of the street will be closed to parking.

He said that Apr. 1 is the expected date for start of the laying of the major storm drain to run up Irwin Street to Bret Street from the pumping station box at DuBoise Street.

"Work will take about a month and we ask the public to bear with us during this major inconvenience," he said.

Contractor is V. Maggiora and Son of Corte Madera.

New Fire House Study Continues

Tamalpais Fire Protection District directors last night met with architect Joe Davis Allen to continue study of plans for a new main fire station.

The board reviewed space requirements in the new station and approved a contract with the federal Department of Housing and Urban Development, guaranteeing fees for the project architect and soil engineers.

Another meeting to work on the plans was set for 7:30 p.m. Monday at the Tamalpais Valley Fire Station.

Carl Hepp Views Supervisor Race In Third District

Carl Hepp, 50, of 155 Elm Avenue, mill Valley, today said he is considering running for supervisor in the third district.

Hepp told the Independent-Journal he would make a decision soon on whether to run for the seat being vacated by Peter H. Behr, also of Mill Valley.

Hepp is president of the conservative Mill Valley Republican Assembly and with his wife, Nan, co-founder of the Parents Association for Neighborhood Schools. He is a freelance advertising agent.

The only persons to take out nomination papers in the third supervisorial district as of this morning were Rev. Samuel L. Banks of Marin City and Mill Valley City Councilman Michael Wornum.

Sentence In Jail On Welfare Chisel

Robert Milton Buswell of Sonoma County will spend the first of five Saturday nights in jail tomorrow as part of his sentence for making a $105 fraudulent welfare claim in Marin County.

Judge Harold J. Haley of Marin Superior Court ordered Buswell to make restitution to the county and placed him on probation for two years.

Furniture Taken

Chester C. Sutter of Marin Master Builders reported to police yesterday the theft of $250 worth of furnishings from model homes at Cedar Hill Drive, San Rafael last weekend.

NOTICE OF TRUSTEE SALE
ESCROW NO. 203392 PN

On Monday, the 18th day of March, 1968, at the hour of 10 o'clock A.M. of said day, at the office of the WESTERN TITLE GUARANTY COMPANY, MARIN COUNTY DIVISION at 801 "A" Street, San Rafael, County of Marin, State of California, WESTERN TITLE GUARANTY COMPANY, MARIN COUNTY DIVISION, Substituted Trustee, will sell at public auction to the highest bidder, without warranty, for cash, in lawful money of the United States, the following described real property situate in the County of Marin, State of California, viz:

LOTS 68 and 69, Map of Fairfax Heights, filed August 6, 1912 in Map Book 4, at page 28.

TOGETHER WITH all and singular the tenements, hereditaments, and appurtenances thereunto belonging or in any wise appertaining, and the reversion and reversions, remainder and remainders, rents, issues, and profits thereof.

SAID Sale will be made to satisfy the obligation secured by and pursuant to the power of sale conferred in a certain Deed of Trust executed by Bernice M. Davis, as Trustor, to Title Insurance and Trust Company, a corporation, as Trustee for the benefit and security of Henry W. Stohlton and Amy Stohlton, his wife, as Joint Tenants, as Beneficiaries, dated July 2, 1964 and recorded July 7, 1964 in Liber 1833 of Official Records, at page 348, Marin County Records.

NOTICE of Breach of said obligation and election to sell said real property was recorded November 15, 1967 in Liber 2172 of Official Records, at page 208, Marin County Records.

THIS NOTICE is given in compliance with the demand heretofore made by the Beneficiary, Henry W. Stohlton and Amy Stohlton, his wife, as Joint Tenants.

DATED this 20th day of February, 1968.

BURT SCHULMAN, Defendant

Action brought in the Superior Court in and for the County of Marin, State of California, and the Complaint filed in the office of the Clerk of said County.

SOL A. ABRAMS, Plaintiff's Attorney

You are directed to file with the clerk of this court in which the above entitled action is brought a written pleading in response to the complaint within ten days after the service on you of this summons, if served within the above named county, or within thirty days if served elsewhere (except that if the action is against the state pursuant to Section 738.5 of the Code of Civil Procedure, within 180 days). You are notified that unless you so file a written responsive pleading, the plaintiff will take judgment for any money or damages demanded in the complaint, as arising upon contract, or will apply to the court for any other relief demanded in the complaint.

You may seek the advice of an attorney on any matter connected with the complaint or this summons. Such attorney should be consulted within the time limit stated in this summons for filing a written pleading to the complaint.

Nearly 200 Back School Tax Hike

Backers of Tuesday's school tax rate election in Sausalito today released a list of nearly 200 persons endorsing the proposal for a new rate of $2.45 per $100 assessed valuation.

Among the 196 names were all five city councilmen, five of six candidates for the April 9 council election, and all Sausalito School District Board members. The list was released by the Committee for Sausalito School Tax.

If voters turn down the proposal, the school tax rate will drop from the present $2.25 to 90 cents, the statutory limit without voter approval. The $2.25 rate was first approved by the voters 10 years ago.

The 15 cents will produce approximately $37,500 a year and the five cents $12,500. The portables are to be paid off at $9,150 a year over the next four years.

Voters will also be asked to waive the state requirement that the higher tax be approved by the voters every five years. Under state law, any tax over 90 cents must be ratified by the voters every five years or less, but that requirement can be waived by majority vote in the district.

School board president David E. Freedheim said the $2.45 rate will be comparable to the rate in other Marin districts of similar size. "Most state school districts find it necessary to almost triple the statutory 90-cent rate to function," he wrote in the ballot argument favoring the tax.

A ballot argument against the tax was submitted by the Sausalito Committee for Equitable Taxation. It was prepared by George F. Carney, Fred Perry and Fred D. Turner. They argued that district taxes were raised 18.66 cents last year despite an extra $70,000 received from growth of the tax role.

It also argued that Sausalito spends too much on its educational program, $1,200 per child compared to $820 in the Reed School District.

Polls will be open from 7 a.m. to 7:30 p.m. at Sausalito Nursery School, 625 Main Street, precincts 3100 and 3101; Sausalito City Hall, 731 Bridgeway, precincts 3002, 3102, 3103 and 3104; Central School, 420 Litho Street, precincts 3003, 3105, and 3106; Bayside School, Nevada Street, precincts 3004 and 3107; Manzanita School, Drake Avenue, Marin City, precincts 3005, 3600 and 3601.

Can Study Of Hands Show Heart Trouble?

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — If you notice your doctor intently studying your hands during an examination, don't think he has suddenly taken to palm-reading.

He may be practicing what an Atlanta physician calls "cardio-vascular sleuthing" — detecting symptoms of heart disease that may show up in the hands.

Dr. Mark E. Silverman of the Emory University School of Medicine told the 17th annual Scientific Session of the American College of Cardiology yesterday that careful examination of the hand may aid a doctor's diagnosis in disorders of the heart and other organs.

Silverman and Dr. J. Willis Hurst, also of Emory, presented a paper on "The Hand and the Heart" during the second day of the group's four - day meeting in San Francisco with nearly 2,000 heart specialists present.

Silverman said he first became interested in the connection two years ago when he noticed in a patient the nail patella syndrome (a complete absence of nails on the thumb and forefinger).

This syndrome is often connected with kidney disease, he said, and that diagnosis for the patient proved correct.

Silverman said the next application of the technique was a patient who had a hole in the arterial septum of his heart, which was diagnosed from the holt - oram syndrome in which the thumb is very small, absent altogether or resembles a finger.

The syndrome is hereditary and the man's son was discovered to have the same heart defect, previously not diagnosed.

"Many doctors tend to ignore the hand as part of the physical examination of patients," Silverman said. "A defect or disease can sometimes not be diagnosed by listening to the heart, yet leave its imprint on the hand."

"A heart attack is often followed by swelling, stiffening and painful discoloration of the hand. If the attack is not noticed, a small scar on the palm of the hand, left when the swelling recedes, may give a clue to the doctor that there has been an attack."

Silverman did not claim that a study of the hand is the answer in every case, or even in most cases.

Garbage Pact Brings Feuding

NEW YORK (AP) — An arbitrator has given the city's 10,000 sanitationmen a pay increase of $425 a year in a 15-month contract, and Mayor John V. Lindsay and the head of the sanitationmen's union are in dispute over the actual value of the award.

The conflicting interpretations involve comparisons on the basis of 12 months or 15 months. Lindsay spoke of "an over-all average increase of $415 over the 15-month period of the contract."

John J. DeLury, president of the Uniformed Sanitationmen's Association, said the award, according to union calculations, amounted to an increase on an annual basis of $429.90.

One Of FBI's Most Wanted Is Captured

HONOLULU (UPI) — One of the FBI's 10 most wanted men, sought in connection with the slaying of an elderly Pennsylvania couple and their grandson, was arrested yesterday aboard his boat at Ala Wai Harbor.

The FBI said the suspect, Ronald Eugene Storck, 27, was apprehended before he had a chance to offer resistance, although he had two pistols and a rifle aboard the boat.

Storck was arraigned before U. S. Commissioner Henry Wong, who set bail at $100,000. A preliminary hearing was set for March 7, after which Storck will be returned to Pennsylvania to face murder charges.

The suspect, a prison parolee from Quakerstown, Pa., is accused of killing three persons at Silverdale, Pa., Nov. 22, 1967, robbing them of $5,000 to $6,000 and stealing a pickup truck.

The FBI said Storck arrived in Honolulu several weeks ago from Alaska and used the alias Robert Berk. Agents said he paid $13,000 for a 30-foot boat and had $3,800 in cash when arrested.

Ross To Discuss Teacher Salaries

The Ross School District Board will discuss the teachers salary schedule for 1968-69 at 7:30 p.m. Monday at the Ross School library.

The teachers salary committee has requested a 5 per cent across-the-board increase. The current pay range is from $5,700 to $11,400, and the teachers have requested a range from $5,985 to $11,955.

Trustees also are scheduled to adopt the 1968-69 school calendar.

HOW TO KEEP WELL

By DR. THEODORE R. VAN DELLEN

Epidemic Brights Disease Hits Trinidad Three Times

VAN DELLEN

South Trinidad has had three epidemics of Bright's disease (acute glomerulonephritis) in the past 15 years. Its last outbreak was thoroughly investigated by West Indian physicians assisted by specialists from Northwestern University Medical School. Their report covering 681 children appeared in the New England Journal of Medicine.

ACUTE NEPHRITIS often follows a strep throat.

In the latest epidemic, however, precipitating streptococci were found in skin sores (impetigo). Approximately 30 per cent of Trinidad's healthy school children have impetiginous sores, but open or healing lesions were found in 64 per cent of those with nephritis.

These sores are believed to be the reservoir of the streptococci that have caused epidemics of kidney trouble at 6-year intervals.

ONLY 23 per cent of the youngsters had sore throats prior to the illness.

Acute nephritis is suspected whenever a sick child develops swollen eyes and eliminates small amounts of dark urine. The swelling may be confined to the face and feet or it may be generalized. The urine is reddish or brown in color and contains blood cells.

Fever and an elevated blood pressure are present so long as the kidneys are involved.

PREVENTION is important in acute nephritis. The antibiotics, corticosteroids and dietary restrictions are of little value. When the epidemic is confined to a small area, everyone is given penicillin or a sulfa drug.

Trinidad's large population makes this approach impractical.

(Dr. Van Dellen will answer questions on medical topics if stamped, self-addressed envelope accompanies request to the I-J.)

BIRTH AT HOME

Mrs. H. P. writes: Is it dangerous to have a baby at home? I started laboring at 3 a.m. and could not get a cab.

REPLY

A woman in labor waits for no physician, hospital or taxi. Hospital deliveries are preferred because they are cleaner, provide adequate help, and have a staff and facilities to handle any emergency. On the other hand, billions of babies have been born at home or in less perfect places than hospitals.

FATTY WARTS

C. S. writes: What is seborrheic keratosis?

REPLY

Fatty, wartlike growths that develop on elderly persons who have oily skin. These lesions are oval, flattened, and yellow to deep brown in color and are found most frequently on the temples, cheeks, back, and chest. They can be removed via electrocautery.

EFFORT SYNDROME

A. K. B. writes: What is effort syndrome?

REPLY

A condition in which marked palpitation of the heart and breathlessness are associated with physical effort. Psychoneurosis is the most common cause.

BRAIN TUMOR AND EYE

A reader writes: Would an eye examination reveal a brain tumor or an infection?

REPLY

Yes. A tumor may press upon the optic nerve and cause changes that are visible with an ophthalmoscope.

Groups Chart Course On Future Conflicts

The board of the North Marin County Water District and the Novato Sanitary District Wednesday night agreed on future courses of action where there might be conflicts of interest.

A controversy arose between the two districts after the North Marin Water District agreed to furnish sanitary facilities to developments in the San Antonio Creek area. This was an area which was included in the Novato Sanitary District's master plan for future expansion.

The two districts and the City of Novato have begun a study of possible mergers of the sanitary district with the water district, the City of Novato, or both.

When the North Marin Water District agreed to furnish sewage to the area which the sanitary district felt was its own, it threatened to withdraw from the study. However, the sanitary board later asked for the joint meeting to talk over their differences.

The boards agreed on three points, according to Jerome B. Gilbert, manager of the water district, and Charles Joseph, manager of the sanitary district.

These were:

1. The water district should proceed with its preliminary studies for sanitary service to the San Antonio Creek watershed area. If the project gets to the construction point before there is any decision on a merger, the boards would meet again to discuss the situation.
2. If a merger does not occur at some future date, the water district would review its service to the San Antonio Creek watershed.
3. The water district will advise the sanitary district board if it receives any requests in the future for sewer service in the northeast section of the county, and they will work out the problems jointly.

Tam High District Backing Asked On Teacher Parleys

The Tamalpais High School District Board has been asked to support a resolution to seek authority to hold closed discussion and planning sessions prior to meetings with teacher negotiating groups.

The request, from the Cajon Valley Union School District Board in San Diego County, will be made at the 8 p.m. meeting Monday of the Tamalpais board in the district offices at Redwood High School.

In a letter, Rodney W. Helland, President of the board for Cajon Valley, states that his board passed such a resolution Feb. 13 and is seeking "consideration and support" of all other state boards of districts having 5,000 or more average daily attendance.

The resolution declares hat while negotiating councils, composed of certified teacher representatives, may prepare in closed session for meeting and conferring with the district board, the Ralph M. Brown Act requires that all boards carry on all of its deliberations in a public meeting. This "inhibits resourceful discussion and planning for the 'meet and confer' process" with the negotiating council, the resolution declares.

It asks that the California School Boards Association "take the necessary action to introduce or support legislation to amend the Brown Act to permit government boards to meet in executive closed session for the purpose of preparing the board's position pursuant to the 'meet and confer' provision of the Winton Act."

The Winton Act, passed in 1964, requires that a board allow, on request, the forming of a negotiating council by certificated personnel, and meet and confer with that council on matters including salaries, employment conditions, employer-employee relations, and curriculum.

New York has 3,492 houses of worship. The largest one is the Cathedral of St. John the Divine (Episcopal).

Fairfax Teen Is Booked In Probe Of Stolen Goods

A 16-year-old Fairfax youth was booked into Juvenile Hall yesterday by the California Highway Patrol for investigation of a felony charge of possessing stolen property. Another juvenile escaped being taken into custody.

Officer Louis R. Disser reported he stopped a car at 3:50 a.m. at the intersection of Oakdale Avenue and Buena Vista Drive in Corte Madera because he could not see the license plate and an unidentified juvenile jumped out and ran away.

When Disser found two five-gallon cans of gasoline in the car, the 16-year-old driver admitted stealing the gas from a truck in San Anselmo, Disser reported.

The youth was also cited for not wearing corrective lenses as required on his driver's license.

Schools Official Back With GOP

The matter of registration of Dr. William L. Clark, chairman of the Mill Valley School District Board, in the Peace and Freedom party was cleared up today.

A Parent Association for Neighborhood Schools news letter by Nan Hepp of Mill Valley, and a Mill Valley Republican Council news letter by her husband, Carl Hepp, both identified Clark as a member of the Peace and Freedom party. However, a check at the county elections department showed he is registered as a Republican. A cancellation of previous Republican registration also was on file.

Not in the file when it was examined was a third registration card, in the Peace and Freedom party. Clark canceled his GOP registration to sign up with the new party, then shortly afterward canceled that to return to the Republicans.

TELEVISION REVIEW

Carol Channing Over Protected

By RICH DU BROW

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — Carol Channing is a very imposing lady who needs little protection on a stage. Her track record is, you might say, rather successful.

In her one-hour ABC-TV variety special last night, however, she got so much alleged "protection" in hopes of assuring good ratings that the results were far from satisfactory. In this special and her last one, there has been considerable lack of understanding how best to present her. As usual, the answer would seem to be rather simple and obvious: Just let the lady do what she does best, and don't crowd her.

CONSIDER SHOW

Alas, however, consider the affair. There was Walter Matthau, apparently to appeal to the more hip, sophisticated audience — but this wonderfully funny and talented man was the recipient not only of little to do, but of a large number of uninspiring lines as well. He seemed ill at ease, and almost altogether misused too.

Then there was Eddy Arnold, apparently to appeal to the provinces. He actually introduced a number this way: "I hope you enjoy this song...It's one of my favorites." And suddenly everything seemed 20 years out of date. Later on, he teamed up with Miss Channing to sing that song about "Dear Hearts and Gentle People," and it was almost too much.

There was, in addition, the pop group called "The Association" obviously to appeal to the younger generation. This group did very well with its number, "Windy," a fine sound. And for those in the audience who might not feel quite at ease with the Association, there was the United States Air Force Academy Cadet Chorale, rendering songs of the Armed Forces.

FINALLY GEORGE

Finally, there was George Burns, and in his unique way he proceeded to get a little plan fun into the goings-on, as he teamed up with Miss Channing on "Some of These Days," and bantered with Matthau. It might really have been something rare if only Miss Channing and Burns had shared the hour. They have worked together before in nightclub turns.

Miss Channing did several pleasant songs and got a few laughs, but by and large she was just too cute in her direct remarks to the viewers. Furthermore, her forced conversations with the guests, and the labored introductions—all of these the obvious responsibility of her producer and director—gave the hour an added feeling of ancient television.

IT'S A PITY

Miss Channing is a terrific comedienne, and it is a pity none of the sketches really unleashed her—particularly with such a funny partner as Matthau around. She is mature and seemingly quite self confident, so why not let her be that way from start to finish? Why the cutie-pie stuff? Why the forced sexy bits, which did not suit her? Why the pop dance in which she looked like a matron acting like a teenager? She has a very specialized talent, and it shouldn't be abused.

The name of the hour was "Carol Channing and One Hundred and One men." There were about 100 too many.

'Up, Up And Away' Is Top Record Of '67

NEW YORK (UPI)—The 5th Dimension hit record "Up, Up and Away" went up, up and away with six Grammy Awards last night, including best record of the year and song of the year.

The National Academy of Recording Arts and Sciences presented the 10th annual Grammy Awards for outstanding achievements in the recording field during 1967 at the New York Hilton.

"Ode to Billie Joe," considered a strong contender for the record of the year award, earned its composer, Bobbie Gentry, four awards—best female vocal performance; best new artist; best contemporary female solo vocal performance and best arrangement accompanying vocalist. Miss Gentry accompanied herself.

In addition to best record and song of the year awards, the 5th Dimension's recording of "Up, Up and Away" was voted best performance by a vocal group; best performance by a chorus; best contemporary single; best contemporary group performance.

The Beatles' album, "Sgt. Pepper's Lonely Hearts Club Band," was voted album of the year and best contemporary album. It also was the best engineered recording.

Singer Aretha Franklin walked off with top honors in the rhythm and blues department for her recording "Respect"—best rhythm and blues recording and also best rhythm and blues vocal performance.

"Mission: Impossible" won the best instrumental theme and best original score awards.

The Cannonball Adderley Quintet captured the best instrumental jazz performance for its recording of "Mercy, Mercy, Mercy." Duke Ellington took a similar award for a group of eight or more persons.

Glen Campbell was cited for best vocal performance, male for his "By the Time I Get to Phoenix," and best contemporary male solo vocal performance for the same recording.

Restaurant Fire At Bodega Bay

BODEGA BAY (AP) — The Tides Restaurant, which played a prominent part as a setting for Alfred Hitchcock's film, "The Birds," was destroyed by fire here early yesterday.

Owner Mitch Zankich estimated the loss at $100,000 and said he would rebuild.

The restaurant and bar had closed at 10:45 p.m. Wednesday.

Flames shot 100 feet high as 50 firefighters from five departments battled the fire.

Novato Sergeant Wounded In Asia

Sgt. Michael Drown, 20, of Novato, who is serving with the 101st Airborne Division of the Army, was wounded Feb. 13 in Vietnam in a battle near the Cambodian border, according to word received by his wife.

He was wounded in the left leg and arm by two machine gun bullets, a rifle bullet and three grenade fragments, according to his wife, Donna Rittenhouse Drown of 725 Lamont Avenue. She does not know in what hospital he is being treated, she said.

Sergeant Drown is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Drown of 3 Wallace Court, Novato.

Sergeant and Mrs. Drown were married in November before he was sent to Vietnam in December. They are expecting their first child.

Giants Take Long Look At Etheridge

CASA GRANDE, Ariz. (AP)—This could be the year Bob Etheridge makes it with the Giants.

Etheridge is a Giant farm product who hit well in the minors — .329 with Fresno in the California League; .295 with Waterbury in the Eastern, and .291 and .325 with Phoenix in the Pacific Coast.

Brought to San Francisco last July, and used little except as a late inning third base reliever or pinch hitter, he fell to .226 in 40 games. There was this bright note: Ten of his 26 hits were for extra bases: seven doubles, two triples and one home run.

Davenport, 34, says he feels strong and hopes to play almost daily after exercising regularly all winter and strengthening a weak leg. But he concedes he'll need to be spelled now and then to stay at or near his peak.

If Etheridge can take over third capably, that will leave Hart in left field. Jim Ray occasionally was called back to third — which he formerly played regularly — last season and his hitting as well as fielding fell off noticeably.

Sauer has had seemingly hundreds of balls hit to Etheridge at the hot corner and seems pleased with Bob's progress.

Ollie Brown said he is about five pounds below his 1967 playing weight of about 190 and feeling good.

Manager Herman Franks names these pitchers for a Sunday intrasquad game, but made no team assignments: Bob Bolin, Ray Sadecki, Ron Herbel, Bill Henry, Frank Linzy and rookies Nestor Chavez and Hal Jeffcoat. They probably will be restricted to about 20 pitches each in a five-inning game.

Champs Tourney: Tam Vs. O'Dowd

All things considered, Marin County Athletic League basketball champion Tamalpais did as well as humanly possible in the first-round pairings for the Tournament of Champions in the Oakland Coliseum scheduled next week.

Still, it's the least of four evils.

The Indians take on Bishop O'Dowd of the Catholic Athletic League at 6 p.m. Thursday in one of the flashiest TOCs ever.

25-7 RECORD

O'Dowd, last year's top-ranked prep team in California, isn't quite that good this year, but brings a 25-7 record into the tournament, No. 25 coming on a hectic 68-66 overtime victory over St. Mary's of Oakland in the CAL playoffs Monday.

In other first round games, unbeaten Wilson of San Francisco, ranked second in the state, draws the winner of tonight's Livermore-Newark game, in the tourney opener at 4:30. Perennial TOC champ McClymonds of the Oakland Athletic League meets Hayward of the Hayward Athletic League at 7:30 p.m. and Alameda Athletic League champ Berkeley takes on North Bay I champ Montgomery at 9 p.m.

STRENGTH

For an indication of the tourney's strength, Wilson is ranked second, McClymonds fourth, Berkeley 15, O'Dowd 18th, Hayward 26th and Montgomery 28th in state rankings.

Fremont, the defending champ of the TOC, will not be here to defend. But McClymonds has won the title eight times in the tourney's 21-year history. Berkeley is the only other former champ in this year's tourney. The Yellowjackets won in 1949, which is a long time ago.

Champs Golf Tourney On San Geronimo Links

Hey, I've got a scoop. The second annual Marin County Golf Tournament of Champions will be held at San Geronimo National course this summer.

This is my first exclusive because I was the first one to know the site. You see, the folks in charge of this tournament asked me to throw the names of five local golf courses in a hat and reach in to pick the lucky winner. It was the easiest scoop of my life.

Last year Indian Valley in Novato originated and hosted the first T of C with the host club's George Scherba winning the title.

San Geronimo will set up a committee soon and further details pertaining to the date, ground rules etc. will be forthcoming. Remember, you'll read all about it here first.

Giants' Free Kids Day Program

MARIN COUNTY summer recreation directors are reminded that the S.F. Giants again will conduct their free kids' day program this summer.

Walter Mails, the Giants' publicist, was on the horn yesterday to promote the popular kids' days. "I've read in your great paper that the recreation departments over there are scheduling activities for the summer," he said. "Well, if recreation directors will contact me at Candlestick Park I'll help set up a day for them at the ballpark. All organized groups and chaperones will be admitted free to any of our non-holiday, weekday afternoon games," he added.

Mails also had words of praise for Mill Valleyan Charles Einstein's new book, "How To Coach, Manage and Play Little League Baseball," mentioned here the other day and due for publication March 11.

Brings Up Some Important Points

"I think it (the book) is really something that Little League has needed for a long time. Einstein brings up some very important points, particularly about interference by the parents. I'd like to see as many managers as possible read it."

I know a few parents who could benefit by it, too.

COLLEGE OF MARIN stars Karl Stein, Bill Ingram, Tim Harr and Honor Jackson of football fame and Tom Stetson, Russ Williams, Russ Smith and Chip Tyson of All-Conference basketball talents will play for the college's Block M All-Stars against the barnstorming Harlem Clowns basketball team next Tuesday, 8 p.m. in a benefit game at the Kentfield gym. Proceeds will help College of Marin's athletic teams buy travelling blazers.

Illinois Calls It Title Bout

CHICAGO (AP) — The Illinois Athletic Board, now mainly concerned with certifying wrestling matches, announced yesterday it was recognizing Monday night's Joe Frazier-Buster Mathis boxing bout in New York as a world championship heavyweight match.

The board was established last October under the Illinois Department of Registration and Education as a successor to the Illinois State Athletic Commission, once a power in professional boxing.

WITH WBA

The defunct athletic commission once was affiliated with the World Boxing Association which does not recognize the Frazier-Mathis bout.

Recognition of the Frazier-Mathis bout came by unanimous vote of the five-member Illinois board, headed by Nels Werner, executive for a power and steam generator manufacturing plant.

Chicago has a closed TV circuit connection with the Frazier-Mathis bout included on a title doubleheader also featuring the Emile Griffith-Nino Benvenuti middleweight match.

CHICAGO BOUT

"We hope our action ultimately will open the way for a fight in Chicago," said Werner. "We are very interested in bringing championship boxing back to Illinois. A rematch of the Frazier-Mathis bout could be fought here. We think this is in the best interest of the state of Illinois and also profitable for the state."

Chicago, once a busy scene of title fights under sponsorship of the now disbanded International Boxing Club, last had a championship fight March 5, 1965.

That was the WBA-sponsored match in which Ernie Terrell of Chicago defeated San Francisco's Eddie Machen at the International Amphitheatre where Monday night's New York title doubleheader will be shown on closed circuit TV at prices from $5.00 to $7.50.

Mexicans Ask IOC Officials To Reconsider

CHICAGO (AP) — Mexican Olympic officials continued talks with Avery Brundage today, hopeful they may lead to reconsideration by the International Olympic Committee of the South African question.

Concern over boycott of the summer Olympic Games in Mexico City brought a three-man delegation to Brundage, IOC president, alst night. They were Ramirez Vazquez, president of the Mexican Olympic Organizing Committee; and two IOC delegates, Jose de Jesus Clark Flores and Marte R. Gomez.

NO COMMENT

Brundage and the Mexicans would not comment when preliminary discussions opened last night.

Prior to leaving Mexico City, Gomez said that "we are joining the movement that now exists throughout the world in favor of the IOC meeting again to reconsider the decision that is causing so much damage to the Olympics."

The IOC voted in February to readmit South Africa to the 1968 Games under agreement of certain conditions. These included abolishment of segregation during the Games. The South Africans would compete as one team, sleep, eat and travel together, rather than separately, as they have done in the past.

32 NATIONS

Readmittance of South Africa fused a boycott threat. So far 32 African nations have said they will pass up the Games to protest against South Africa's policy of racial segregation.

The Soviet bloc countries have said they oppose the South African policy but have not firmly stated they will withdraw.

PEGGY HEADS FOR THIRD WORLD TITLE

GENEVA, Switzerland, (AP) — Peggy Fleming, Olympic gold medal winner and defending champion, virtually made certain of her third straight world figure skating title today by building up a huge lead at the end of the compulsory figures.

Barring a bit of March madness, the announcement of the winner will be a mere formality at the end of tomorrow nights free skating final.

The 19-year-old student teacher from Colorado Springs, Colo., totaled the perfect ordinal score of 9.0, meaning that each of the nine judges ranked her first, and 1209.7 points after the six compulsories.

Negro Boycott Leader To Resign Teaching Post

SAN JOSE (AP) — Harry Edwards, 24-year-old sociology instructor at San Jose State College and a leader of the threatened Negro boycott of the 1968 Olympic Games, plans to quit his job at the end of this semester.

Edwards is employed on a three-fourths time basis under appointment for the academic year. He said he plans to return to Cornell University to complete studies for a doctorate.

President Robert D. Clark said yesterday he had been informed some weeks ago of Edwards' intention. A college spokesman said, however, Edwards has not given official notice he is leaving.

"I regret that circumstances may have led him to believe he is ineffective at the college," Clark said.

He added reports "indicate he is an able teacher" and "certainly he is a popular one."

Edwards, who was an undergraduate basketball player at San Jose State, said he no longer wanted to teach at a predominantly white school.

BASEBALL ROUNDUP

Lonborg Pays A Visit

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

"I just want to be on the scene with the rest of the guys," said Lonborg, who injured his knee while skiing just before Christmas and underwent surgery.

NOT UNTIL MAY

He said he plans to return to Boston to have the cast removed next Tuesday and then drive back to Winter Haven, Fla., to begin getting the knee back in shape. He is not expected to pitch until mid-May.

Rain disrupted workouts for most of the Florida-based teams. But not before Minnesota Twins' Manager Cal Ermer and infielder Sandy Alomar of the Chicago White Sox were forced to the sidelines.

Ermer tore a leg muscle while reaching for a thrown ball while Alomar was struck in the face by a ball and suffered a minor nosebleed.

MERRITT SIGNS

The holdout ranks were thinned somewhat when pitcher Jim Merritt, who had a 13-7 record, signed with the Twins and shortstop Ruben Amaro became the last of the New York Yankees to come to terms. Both received an estimated $24,000.

However, outfielder Tony Oliva of the Twins, third baseman Clete Boyer of the Atlanta Braves, eight Cincinnati Reds and three key Houston Astros still were unsigned.

Oliva, who received $40,000 last season and is asking $60,000, is scheduled to arrive in the Twins' camp today to talk with owner Cal Griffith.

BOYER A HOLDOUT

Boyer became a holdout after a 30-minute session with Braves officials. The ex-Yankee, who had his best season in 1967 with 26 homers and 96 runs batted in, reportedly is asking a boost from $35,000 to $50,000. The Braves are said to have offered $45,000.

Assistant General Manager Phil Seghi of Cincinnati talked by phone with outfielders Pete Rose and Vada Pinson, pitchers Mel Queen and Jay Ritchie and rookie infielder Hal McRae. He couldn't convince any of them to sign. Other Red holdouts are pitcher Jim Maloney and infielders Tommy Helms and Chico Ruiz.

The Cleveland Indians lost two men when outfielder Don Demeter decided to retire and rookie pitcher Gary Boyd was called into the Army for six months.

Black Power Groups To Picket N.Y. Fight

NEW YORK (AP) — Spokesmen for Black Power groups announced yesterday plans to picket Monday night's heavyweight title fight between Buster Mathis and Joe Frazier because they said the title belongs to Cassius Clay, also known as Muhammad Ali.

The Mathis-Frazier winner will be recognized as the world heavyweight champion in New York, Massachusetts and Illinois. It will be preceded by a world middleweight title bout between champion Emile Griffith and Nino Benvenuti.

MISLED

No mention was made of the Griffith-Benvenuti fight at the announcement of picketing plans at the national office of the Congress of Racial Equality.

Floyd McKissick, national director of CORE, said that, "Black people feel that two Negroes are being misled so they can exist in a capitalist society."

"Millions of black people throughout the world recognize Muhammad Ali as the champion," said Lincoln Lynch, chairman of the United Black Front.

"The white vultures of the boxing world are preparing to suck the black blood for dollars," Lynch said.

LIKE WALLACE

John Wilson, director of anti-war activities for the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee, said he would "pull a George Wallace" by standing in the doorway of Madison Square Garden until "someone has the power to move me."

Asserting that the fight was a fraud, Jarvis Tyner, national chairman of the W.E.B. DuBois Clubs of America, added:

"Although it might be a good fight between two good fighters, the winner will not be heavyweight champion of the world."

Playwright LeRoi Jones said that Frazier or Mathis "might tell white people they're the champions, but they won't come in the black community and say it because people would laugh in their faces."

Racing Opener May Be Delayed

ALBANY (UPI) — The Northern California members of the Horsemen's Benevolent and Protective Association meet tonight to decide whether to enter their horses this weekend for Monday's Golden Gate Fields opening.

A no vote could postpone the opening.

Hayes Dominates All-America Team

NEW YORK (AP) — Elvin Hayes, the Big E of the top-ranked University of Houston Cougars, dominated the 1968 college basketball All-American announced today by the Associated Press.

Lew Alcindor of UCLA, Westley Unseld of Louisville, Pete Maravich of Louisiana State and Larry Miller of North Carolina rounded out the first team picked by the votes of 322 sports writers and broadcasters.

The 6-foot-8 Hayes, the 7-1½ Alcindor and the 6-8 Unseld are repeaters from the 1967 A-A. Maravich, a 6-5 sophomore, is the nation's leading collegiate scorer. Miller, a 6-3 senior, led North Carolina to 20 straight victories. Hayes and Unseld also are seniors while Alcindor is a junior.

Calvin Murphy, a 5-10 soph of Niagara, headed the second team which included Neal Walk of Florida, Bob Lanier of St. Bonaventure, Lucius Allen of UCLA and Don May of Dayton.

Mike Warren of UCLA, Rick Mount of Purdue, Jo Jo White of Kansas, Mike Lewis of Duke and Sam Williams of Iowa were selected as a third team.

Hayes, who scored 39 points as Houston snapped UCLA's 47-game winning streak in January and on Feb. 24 got 62 against Valparaiso as Houston set a single game record of 158 points, almost had a perfect score in the balloting.

NEARLY PERFECT

The Big E, the second highest career scorer in college records, was picked on the first team by 320 voters. The other two put him on the second team. He missed a perfect total of 1,610 points by only six with his 1,604 aggregate. Five points were given for a first team nod, two points for a second team vote.

FIRST TEAM

Lew Alcindor, UCLA, 7-1½, junior, New York City.
Pete Maravich, Louisiana State, 6-5, sophomore, Raleigh, N.C.
Westley Unseld, Louisville, 6-8, senior, Louisville, Ky.

SECOND TEAM

Neal Walk, Florida, 6-10, junior, Miami Beach, Fla.
Bob Lanier, St. Bonaventure, 6-11, sophomore, Buffalo, N.Y.
Lucius allen, UCLA, 6-2, junior, Kansas City, Kan.
Don May, Dayton, 6-4, senior, Dayton, Ohio.

THIRD TEAM

Mike Warren, UCLA, 5-11, senior, South Bend, Ind.
Rick Mount, Purdue, 6-4, sophomore, Lebanon, Ind.

Door At Cooperstown Too Narrow For A Wheelchair

Well, I see where—when my back was turned—they turned Roy Campanella down for the Hall of Fame again.

That's all right. Campy is used to running into locked doors. One thing they know about Campy he'll wait. He's always had to.

Roy Campanella has a lot in common with Joe DiMaggio. If elected, he would be the only other one in the Hall whose father was Italian.

If elected, he'd be the only other one in there besides Jackie Robinson whose mother was American Negro.

BUT IF Roy Campanella ever makes the Hall of Fame, he would be the first member of an even more distinguished minority to make Cooperstown. He would be the first quadriplegic to make the shrine of baseball.

Roy's was a career to make you wonder why he shouldn't be throwing stones at the Hall of Fame. Or the Statue of Liberty, for all of that.

HE WAS brought up in a section of Philadelphia called "Nicetown." And it rubbed off. Mornings were spent helping to load Dad's fruit cart. As soon as the sun came up, the day was for playing hookey in favor of catching a game of stickball. Afternoons were for climbing up on top of apartment houses around old Shibe Park and wathing Lefty Grove try to keep Lou Gehrig from hitting home runs.

There was no time for running the streets. Papa had an old-world faith in the razor strop and Mama believed in the teachings of the Nazarene Baptist Church. It was a mixed marriage in more ways than one but it lasted well past its golden wedding anniversary, which is more than a lot of Main Line marriages could say.

IT WAS accepted by the neighborhood on Kerbaugh Street — until the neighborhood on Kerbaugh Street began to change, and Roy Campanella once recounted in his book, "It's Good To Be Alive," when the kids of two colors sprang a new word on Roy: "Halfbreed." Befor the blood had dried on his knuckles, Roy Campanella had run all the way home to blurt to his mother, "Momma, is Daddy a white man?" Knowing full well the answer, Ida Mercer Campanella nevertheless turned gently to her son. "Roy," she asked, "what's the difference?"

THE DIFFERENCE to Roy was the back-of-the-bus, south-of-the-border and eat-with-the-porters when he got into baseball. He became the only 14-year-old catcher of half-Sicilian descent in the Negro American baseball leagues, the only guy who knew how to wrap spaghetti around a fork or which end of a Caruso aria to play first on the Baltimore Elite Giants. He was the one gumbar the Yankees didn't send a cab for. Raschi, DiMaggio, Crosetti, Lazzeri, Rizzuto and Berra had to get along without this paisano.

HE PLAYED on some teams whose travels would have been better if their bus tires had as much rubber in them as their checks. He learned to catch baseballs so scuffed up that they curved just handing them to somebody.

In 1945, Branch Rickey summoned him — and Campy got crossed up on the pitch. He thought he was being invited to play on a team to be called the "Brown Dodgers." "Mr. Rickey," Roy said, shaking his head, "I make $3,000 a year."

IT WAS the only passed ball Campy had all year. One week later, in a card game with Jackie Robinson, Jackie asked him, "What did you tell Mr. Rickey in your conference?" I told him I wasn't interested in the 'Brown Dodgers'," Campy said. "It wasn't the 'Brown Dodgers'," Jackie told him. "I'm signing with Montreal tomorrow."

That one muff made Jackie Robinson an historic figure — and Roy Campanella just one of the guys who crossed the Atlantic after Lindbergh. No one took notice he was the first half-Italian, half-Negro in organized baseball.

CAMPY WAS the best catcher in the game — when his thumb didn't look like a peeled banana with nerves wound around bone chips. He won three Most-Valuable-Player championships. Only four others have done it. He hit 242 home runs, caught 100 games or more 9 years in a row.

One icy night he found a curve he couldn't hold onto — on a slick road in Long Island. Quite suddenly Roy Campanella was out of baseball and nearly out of this world. It took five men and two crowbars to get him out of the car, and, several operations and tractions later, the man who could catch Sandy Koufax's fastball barehanded couldn't catch a lobbed volleyball, stand up without a tiltboard or eat with his mouth. The only part of Roy Campanella that worked was his eyes. All he could do with them was cry.

He should have been dead before they cut him out of the car, should have been a vegetable before they helped him out of bed. But he kept walking through those locked doors.

Except one. The one at Cooperstown is apparently too narrow for a wheelchair. Either that, or the voters are.

Knicks Have Trouble With Those Hawks

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Boston Celtics? A snap for the New York Knicks. The Philadelphia 76ers? A breeze. But, ah, those St. Louis Hawks.

The Knicks are now 1-6 against the Hawks after last night's 105-102 overtime defeat by St. Louis in a National Basketball Association game at Miami.

New York has won two games each against the Celtics and the 76ers and has two games left against each. Last year, the Knicks could beat Philadelphia only once and Boston not at all.

St. Louis has presented a problem for New York all year. Most of the games have been close, but somehow the Hawks are usually on top when the gun sounds.

A basket by Dick Barnett with 13 seconds left in regulation time tied the game for New York last night, but Joe Caldwell's basket in the first five seconds of the overtime period put the Hawks ahead for good.

In the American Basketball Association, Houston edged Dallas 101-100, Pittsburgh topped Kentucky 123-119 and Minnesota downed Oakland 125-115 in overtime.

Bill Bridges led the scoring for the Hawks with 22 points and had an equal number of rebounds. Willis Reed had 28 points and 19 rebounds for the Knicks.

Los Angeles took a 47-45 lead and never let Chicago catch up as Elgin Baylor dropped in 27 points, one more than the Bulls' Bob Boozer.

Oscar Robertson, returning to full time play after missing four games with injury, teamed with Adrian Smith for 51 points and led Cincinnati on a 34-19 splurge in the third quarter that halted San Diego. Henry Finkel scored 21 points for the Rockets.

Oaks Lose In Overtime

MINNEAPOLIS / ST. PAUL (UPI)— The Minnesota Muskies scored 17 points in overtime to down the Oakland Oaks 125-115 last night and remain 2½ games behind the Pittsburgh Pipers in the American Basketball Association's eastern division race.

Mel Daniels scored 20 points in the first half to lead the Muskies to a 59-49 halftime lead.

Led by Jim Hadnot, who piled up 13 of his evening's 38 points in the third quarter, the Oaks closed the gap to 84-82 by the end of three quarters.

At the end of a close fourth quarter, Minnesota forward Sam Smith scored two free throws to tie the score at 108-108.

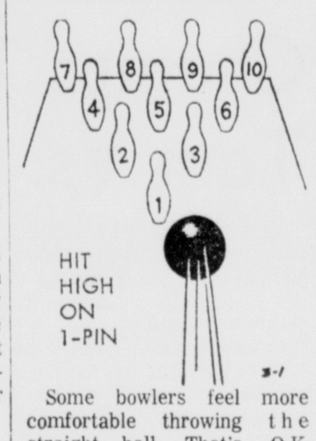
BOWLING TIPS

By DON CARTER



Some bowlers feel more comfortable throwing the straight ball. That's O.K., although a tight hook will eventually knock down more pins once the bowler learns it. If you do bowl straight, though, aim for a hit high on the 1-pin to get more pins on your first ball. Start from well to the right.

Mrs. Hensler Wins Tourney

Mrs. Harry Hensler took Class A honors at the Meadow Club Women's Golf Club's Best nine-one half handicap tourney yesterday in Fairfax with a net 37.

The results:

Class A — Mesdames Harry Hensler, 45-8-37; Henry Martins, 46-8-38; Theodore Brown, 47-8½-38½.

Class B — Mmes. Lafrenz Arfsten, 47-12-35; Norman Ackley, 47-11½-35½; Hallam Cooley, 47-10½-36½.

Alvarado Wins More Honors At Drake High

Don Alvarado keeps reaping in the honors.

The senior forward of Drake High School's basketball team was honored with the 1968 Pirates' most valuable player and captain trophies, which he also accrued when he helped lead Drake to a share of the 1967 grid title.

The honors were handed out at the annual Drake High School basketball awards banquet last night at the San Francisco Theological Seminary in San Anselmo.

Other awards:

Class B — Captain, Mark Silverman; Most Valuable, Richard Smartt; Sportsmanship, Richard Tierney; Scholarship, Sandy Ball and Richard Smartt.

Junior Varsity — Captain, Larry Gillespey; Most Valuable, Al Sproul; Sportsmanship, Bob Sutherland; Scholarship, Bob Bridges.

Freshman — Captain, Ralph Ardito; Most Valuable, Jim Forni; Sportmanship, Bob Gregg.

Class C — Captain, William Elliott; Most Valuable, Don Giesen; Sportsmanship, Tom Piatanesi.

Del Mar, Ross Win In Tourney

Del Mar downed Neil Cummins, 23-21 on Tom Johnson's eight points and Ross defeated Hall, 35-28, as Gil Slusher scored 14 points for the losers and Tom Gurvin had nine for Ross.

STEVENS

A letter from Ed Kohlhauf, a longtime skipper featuring trolling for salmon, is before me as I write today's column. The letter is a plea for correct handling of undersized salmon.

"Anybody can make a fish releaser hook at no expense," he writes. "All that is needed is a pair of pliers and a piece of coat-hanger wire. Bend the end three-quarters of an inch back on itself; bend the other end into a one-inch ring. The ring is used as a handle, and the whole gadget should be from four to six inches long.

"To use the hook releaser, grab the leader with one hand and hook the releaser over the shank on the hook with the other hand. Pull down on the leader and up on the releaser (keeping leader tight between hands); this will turn the hook upside down and with a shake or two the fish will slide off the hook. (Be sure to hold the fish over the water, if you intend to release it.) Will you please help in bringing this information to your readers?" Signed Golden Gate Sportfishers, Inc. Edmund Kohlhauf, chairman, Migratory Fish.

AS ED KOHLHAUF writes, every undersized salmon properly released means many young salmon, if not injured, can bring forth many small fish destined to grow heavy and furnish sport for the angler.

BY THE WAY, if you happen to go Mexico this year, and you buy or catch lobsters or abalones, make certain you have an export permit. It is necessary to obtain a Mexican form SP-12 in order to bring these species into the United States. Also you must have a bill of sale.

The Mexican Fish and Game Commission in Ensenada said permits may be obtained from its office or from the National Cooperative Bank on weekdays and the "Fisheries of the Sea" when the bank is closed on Sundays. (The Mexican Fish and Game Department states that the illegal traffic in lobsters and abalone has become serious, estimated over 500 tons this year.)

BUT WHY go to Baha California when we have good fishing here? Ocean fishing for salmon, after the splurge of a few days ago, seems to have settled down to a more or less steady affair. Apparently the action near the Light Ship petered out. The action on Tuesday and Wednesday was had in the Duxbury region. Tony Caruso of Sausalito reported an average of 14 or 15 fish to the boat. The Ma Ru on Tuesday netted 14 salmon for 6 anglers. It figures out at about a fish-and-one-half per rod and that's not bad.

SAN PABLO BAY on the Marin side continues to be from fair to good to excellent.

Bruce Nave Is Class B Score King

They ranged all the way from San Rafael scoring leader Bruce Nave's 187 points to 2 points each by Frank Vanderbilt of San Rafael, Sandy Ball of Drake and Dan Guglielmo of Marin Catholic.

USC's Surprising Quintet Not Out Of Pacific-8 Race

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

UCLA's Bruins were supposed to be great, so Southern California's Trojans must be the biggest surprise of the Pacific-8 basketball race this year.

It could develop after this weekend, that the March 9 game between UCLA's defending national collegiate champions and their crosstown rivals will be a showdown in the Pacific-8.

UCLA stands 11-0. USC, 10-1, lost only to the Bruins so far in the league.

Tonight UCLA plays host to Stanford while California plays USC at the Sports Arena. On Saturday it's USC-Stanford and UCLA-California.

CAN CLINCH TIE

UCLA can clinch at least a tie for the title by sweeping this weekend. USC can finish no worse than second, no matter what.

The other games this weekend have Washington State at Oregon and Washington at Oregon State tonight, Washington at Oregon on Saturday afternoon and Washington State on Saturday night.

Just in case a playoff game is necessary to determine the champion, athletic directors J. D. Morgan of UCLA and Jess Hill of USC held a coin flip yesterday to determine the home club. USC won. So the game, if needed, would be played Monday, March 11, at the Los Angeles Sports Arena. The flip was held early so there would be adequate time for preparations.

Feats of UCLA's two-time All American Lew Alcindor and his mates are well known. They rank No. 2 nationally after losing only to Houston.

What about Southern California?

"We're better disciplined both offensively and defensively and next year we'll be even more so," declared 37-year-old Bob Boyd in this second year of USC coaching.

"When I first came here, I didn't know the players and they didn't know me. It takes time.

"Secondly, we're more experienced as a team. We're now playing together as a group rather than as a collection of individuals.

"And finally, our guard strength is much better. I can't emphasize how much the addition of Mack Calvin has helped us."

The Trojans have won 12 of their last 13 games and boast a 17-6 over-all mark. With Bill Hewitt leading the scorers with a 19.5 average and 7-foot 1 Ron Taylor showing marked improvement, USC isn't out of the race yet.

NIT Committee Increases Field From 14 To 16 Teams

NEW YORK (UPI)—The National Invitation Tournament continued its attempt to match the NCAA for post-season basketball prestige today with a record high entry for the 1968 classic at Madison Square Garden March 14-23.

Aware the National Collegiate Athletic Association had for all intents and purposes dwindled to a two-team battle between UCLA and Houston, the NIT selection committee yesterday decided its field would be increased from 14 to 16 teams to accommodate some popular also-rans in conference competition.

John Bach, chairman of the committee, said the night of Friday, March 15, would be added to the playing dates and that byes would be eliminated.

Seven teams currently make up the lineup, with nine more to be added. Long Island University and St. Peter's were invited Wednesday night to join Fordham, Army, Notre Dame, Duquesne and Oklahoma City.

Runnersup in the Atlantic Coast, Big Eight and Missouri Valley Conferences are virtually assured of receiving membership of the 1968 NIT club.

Three Women Tie At Las Gallinas

There was a three-way tie for first place yesterday at the Las Gallinas Women's Golf Club iron and putter tourney. Nine-hole scores were:

Mesdames Barney Campbell, 39-7-32; Fred Laubscher, 39-7-32; Jack Smoot, 40-8-32; Bo Johnson, 37-4-33; Richard Crugman, 45-12-33.

Billie Vs. Rosie In Net Opener

BROOKVILLE, N.Y. (UPI)—Top-ranked Billie Jean King of Long Beach, will meet Rosemary Casals of San Francisco in the opening round of the second annual Long Island indoor tennis tournament Saturday.

Manuel Santana of Spain drew Eugene Scott of St. James, N.Y., as his first opponent in the two-day round robin tournament.

Cornering at high speeds is one of the last things to expect small cars to do, successfully. Unless it's a SAAB, the out-of-the-ordinary small car. Out of the ordinary because it has front-wheel drive. So it doesn't push you around like others do. It pulls you around corners, curves and other drivers' mistakes. Is that all SAAB has? Bowling Tourney Begins Tonight; A 10-Pin Stopper

By RALPH CHATOIAN

Marin County Men's Bowling Association tournament opens tonight with 10 teams from the 905 Travel League among those kicking off action at Greenbrae Lanes.

Among the teams is Steve Zappetini and Son, defending champ. Team competition is at Greenbrae this year, with singles and doubles at Nave Lanes. Other defending champs trying again this time around are Jim Lassle (singles), Clarence Peters and Les Taylor (doubles) and Bob Crowhurst (all events). The tourney winds up March 10.

DOWN THE LANES —Bowling in the Mixed Mates League Tuesday at Greenbrae Lanes, Colin Rose had nine straight strikes, was tapped with the 10-pin in the 10th frame, converted the spare and finished with a strike for a 279. . . . It was a night for split-making in the Novato Sportsmen League at Nave Lanes, the most notable being Lee Newsom's 6-7 and Lou Nave's 4-7-9-10. . . . Going over the 200 mark for the first time, Phylis Vercellino had a 209 in the Coffee Cuppers and Ida Del Frote a 203 in the Hits and Mrs., both at Greenbrae Lanes. . . . Jess Chidester was very consistent in making his 616 at Greenbrae Lanes, 202-202-212 in the Mavericks.

In the Winter Wonders at Country Club, Dot Donner made the 4-10 split and Margaret Halloran did it on the other side, 6-7. . . . Junior bowler Kip Christopher rolled a 236 at Greenbrae. . . . Auggie Hanken, a 154 average bowler, rolled a whopping 268 game and 619 series in the Elks League at Country Club Bowl; that game, featured by eight straight strikes, took league top honors away from Jim Fitzgerald who had a 257 earlier this season, reports secretary Bob Marelli. . . . Pat Downward, 128 average, rolled a 509 series in the Wig No. 2 at Country Club.

PICKIN' 'EM UP — Norm Ferrari's 227 was the best of five 200 games bowled in the Friday Nite Leftovers League at Nave Lanes, with Bill Rowlette wowing teammates by picking up the 6-8-10 split. . . . Anne Gildersleeve converted the difficult 6-7 split in the Newcomers League at Nave. . . . Speaking of newcomers, Sally Morris is thrilled with her 152 game in the T.G.I.F. League, as she's only been bowling for two weeks. . . . Curley Stobbe missed a 166 triplicate by only one pin in the Merry Mixers at Country Club Bowl; he knocked down nine pins in the last frame of his last game for a 167. . . . Tight games were the rule in the Merry Mixers as four games were decided by a single pin. . . . What about that 650 Nikki Simonian rolled in the Mixed Travel League! Having a big night of it, she rolled games of 211, 215 and 224, in that order. That's the high series of the year for women at Greenbrae Lanes.

Barbara Swisher stepped down the ladder in the Classy Lassies League at Nave Lanes, 135-134-133, while Jan Sabbatini was leading the way with a 221—548. . . . Betty Wensloff had a near-triplicate in the Ladies 600 Travel at Nave Lanes, 157-156-156. . . . The Zappetini and Son team is red-hot in the Marin 905 Travel League, winning its 13th straight game last week. Scores were 1,001, 897 and 1,089, led by Dick Treadway's big 707 series (238-235-234). It was a parade of big scores in the 905 at Country Club — Treadway's score followed by Frank Bernardi's 239—675, Dan Jeung's 246—673, Orlando Conti's 264—673 and Bill Henderson's 266—660.

STRIKES TO SPARE — Nita Moore needed the 5-7 split for a 200 game in the San Marin League, made the split and rolled a 204 . . . Jean Freeland rolled an all-spare 184 game in the St. Isabella's Women's League at Nave . . . There were almost two triplicates in the TGIF League at Country Club, Art Unroe rolling a 145-145-148 more and Fred Morris a 138-138-137; and they'll want Lou Piver to do some more subbing after his 225—591 night in the TGIF.

Mike Curry blasted a 646 series in the Week-Enders League at Country Club (where else, since he's the manager there), while Pat Piver was a model of consistency in the same league, rolling games of 193, 194 and 197 for a very impressive 584 series. . . . Pete Arnott is due for a 166 line after tossing of 136-146-156 in the Weekenders. . . . Bert and Johnnie's Auto Wrecking team of the Mighty Misses League took high team series away from Fawn's Beauty Nook with an 1,806 and took high team game from Olsen's with a 651 in a hot day at Country Club. . . . Lon Hollingsworth was 70 pins over his average when he rolled a 236 game in the Splinters League at Country Club. . . .
